AUSTRALIAN STOCK EXCHANGE AND MEDIA RELEASE

POWER SUPPLY INTERRUPTION AT GOLDEN GROVE

Oxiana has been advised by supplier Alinta, that power supply to its Golden Grove mine in Western Australia will be temporarily interrupted due to impact from the explosion at Apache Energy's Varanus Island facility. The power interruption will commence later today and the duration of the outage is currently unknown.

Oxiana is working to reduce the impact on its operations and production through the use of stand-by diesel power generators.

We will keep the market fully informed as further information comes to hand.
