

Media Release

QANTAS STATEMENT

SYDNEY, 18 December 2008: Qantas Airways Limited (Qantas) and British Airways Plc (BA) are announcing that after detailed discussions about a potential merger of the companies, talks have ended.

Despite the potential longer term benefits for Qantas and BA, the airlines have not been able to come to an agreement over the key terms of the merger, at this time.

Qantas and BA will continue to work together on their joint business between Australia and the UK and as part of the oneworld alliance.

Note to Editors

Given the cessation of discussions between Qantas and BA, additional disclosure obligations regarding dealings in BA and Qantas shares required by the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers no longer apply.

Issued by Qantas Corporate Communication (Q3868)
Media Enquiries: David Epstein - Telephone 02 9691 3500

Qantas Airways Limited ABN 16 009 661 901

Further information and media releases can be found at the Qantas website: qantas.com

For personal use only