REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

During the half year, significant progress was made towards achieving Western Areas goal to become Australia's second largest and lowest cost nickel producer. The single most important outcome from the half was the December quarter reduction in cash costs at Flying Fox to US$1.36/lb nickel in concentrate, probably the lowest in Australia. In addition, major capital infrastructure was completed in the December quarter to enable the Company to focus on expanding low cost nickel production in 2009.

Highlights from the half year were:

1. 8,114 tonnes of nickel from first full year production at Flying Fox
2. US$1.36/lb nickel cash costs for Flying Fox, down 47% since Sept quarter
3. Mine development extended down to the Flying Fox T4 deposit
4. The high grade resources at Spotted Quoll was upgraded to 125,460t nickel
5. Surface site works completed at the planned Diggers South mine
6. Previous mine portal exposed at the planned Cosmic Boy mine
7. Construction of the Cosmic Boy nickel concentrator completed
8. Upgrade of the accommodation village to 465 rooms
9. Very high safety and environmental standards maintained at mine site

The half year saw the nickel price drop from US$22,549/tonne (US$10.23/lb) on 30 June to US$10,800/tonne (US$4.9/lb) on 31 December. Despite these challenging market conditions, your Company is in a very strong position and is on track to achieve its goal to become one of Australia's premier nickel producers. Western Areas has set a number of targets for 2009. These are to:

- Expand low cost production and ore reserves at Flying Fox mine
- Commence open pit production at the high grade Spotted Quoll mine
- Commission the Cosmic Boy nickel concentrator
- Increase revenue by negotiating improved nickel offtake terms
- Reduce costs by negotiating new contracts and reducing drilling budget
- Discover another Spotted Quoll or Flying Fox type deposit in 2009

Flying Fox

- All major development work at the high grade Flying Fox T1 ore body is complete and stoping of the two main ore blocks is meeting all expectations. The decline has advanced behind T4 with first production expected in April 09. Production from the large T5 ore body is on track to commence in early 2010.
- Invoiced production from T1 during the half year was 106,143 tonnes of ore at an average mined grade of 4.3% nickel for a total 4,144 tonnes contained nickel. (Table 1)

Spotted Quoll

- Mineral resource increased to >2.0Mt at an average grade of 6.2% nickel for 125,460t nickel to 640m depth. Spotted Quoll is already larger than Flying Fox only 15 months since discovery and remains open at depth.
- The first ore reserve was released on the 12 Feb 2009. Permitting is progressing for an initial open pit planned to be in production in the December quarter 09. Scoping studies have commenced for a long life underground mine.

Exploration

Systematic exploration is focused along 25km Western Nickel Belt with the objective to discover another Spotted Quoll or Flying Fox type nickel deposit in 2009. Only 3 of 9 known lava channels.

For a full briefing on the Company's activities for the half please refer to the September and December quarterly reports.

Subsequent Events

On the 16th of February 2009 Western Areas announced a major restructure of the Ore Tolling and Concentrate Purchase Agreement (“OTCPA”) between the Company and Norilsk Nickel Australia (“NNAU”).

The main features of the restructure are as follows:

1. NNAU’s obligations to toll treat Western Areas’ Forresteria ore at NNAU’s Lake Johnston concentrate plant will cease on 1 March 2009.
2. Western Areas retains the right to sell Flying Fox nickel concentrate produced through the Cosmic Boy nickel concentrator to NNAU on the existing terms, however:
 - a. Western Areas will have an option but not the obligation to remove 40% of Flying Fox concentrate from the existing OTCPA from 1 April 2009
 - b. Western Areas will have a second option but not an obligation to remove 100% of Flying Fox concentrate from the existing OTCPA from 1 January 2010
 - c. In the event Western Areas exercises the second option, the OTCPA will cease and both parties will have no ongoing obligations or liabilities.
3. The concentrate grade required to be supplied to NNAU under the existing terms of the OTCPA will be reduced from 16% to 14% nickel in concentrate. This should further improve metallurgical recoveries through the new Cosmic Boy plant.
4. Western Areas will acquire surplus plant items owned by NNAU at no cost. These items include a ball mill, thickener and flotation cells which are key lead time items required for any future upgrade of the Cosmic Boy plant.

The restructure has no effect on the results for the half year ended.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. These Auditing Standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.
