UK print business to close

REA Group Limited (ASX:REA) today announces the closure of its UK print business operated by Propertyfinder Publications Limited with effect from the end of April 2009. The closure will permit the REA Group's UK business propertyfinder.com to focus entirely on its online property advertising business.

The final publication date for the HotProperty and Renting publications will be 24 April 2009 and the final publication date of London Property News will be 30 April 2009. These titles were published by Propertyfinder Publications Limited for the London property market.
