Under the conventions of International Accounting Standards recorded profits and losses are much more variable, as changes in the market value of the Company's total assets are reflected through the profit and loss account.

The longer term movement of asset values, combined with the flow of dividends, is a better measure of the performance of a listed investment company, such as Platinum Capital.

The Company believes a more appropriate measure of its results is the change in its Net Asset Value, adjusted for dividends. The NAV is released monthly to the ASX and is on the Company's web site.

Chairman's Report 2009

Investment Performance

In the year ending on 30 June 2009, Platinum Capital's net asset value increased by 18.4% pre-tax and by 14.2% after allowing for all tax liabilities, both realised and unrealised. For a comparison the benchmark Morgan Stanley Capital Index fell 16.1% for the 12 months.

This good short-term performance made a useful contribution to our very satisfactory long-term and medium-term out-performance of both the world index and of the Australian index.

Since its inception in 1994 the compound annual appreciation of the Company's assets on a pre-tax basis has been 13.7% compared to the return from the MSCI of 4.2%. The comparable return from the Australian All Ordinaries Accumulation Index has been 8.9% annually over the 15 years.

Corporate Governance – International Accounting Standards

The Annual Report is prepared under Australian International Financial Reporting Standards. Under the Standards, realised profits and losses are added to or reduced by changes in the market value of the Company's total assets. As regards Investment Companies operating in volatile markets, this leads to large variations in reported profit as from any one year to the next.

In your Directors' opinion the longer-term movement of asset values, combined with the flow of dividends, is a better measure of performance.

Dividends

A fully franked final dividend of 5 cents per share is proposed, making 10 cents for the full year as against 10 cents in the previous twelve months. We continue with our policy of smoothing dividend payouts.

Outlook for 2009-2010

The Investment Manager is of the opinion that "it is likely to be several years before the consequences of the credit crisis have fully played themselves out". With such an uncertain background, it is impossible to forecast profit a year ahead.

Corporate Actions

In the 2008/2009 year the Company undertook a 1:1 renounceable rights issue at $1.07 per share to take advantage of opportunities to invest in securities we regarded as undervalued. The issue raised $17.5m. This was the first rights issue the Company has undertaken since its formation in 1994.

In response to shareholders' requests we also introduced a Share Purchase Plan ("SPP") which enabled us to issue stock at slightly below market price and free of brokers' commission.

Finally

I wish to express my appreciation of the efforts of all the people at Platinum Asset Management along with those of my fellow Directors.

I wish to pay particular tribute to the late Graeme Galt, who served us well for seven years.

Platinum Capital Limited 30 June 2009
Investment Manager's Report

Performance

The mood of investors brightened as the realisation set in that the downward spiral of economic activity, attributable to massive but short-lived de-stocking, would be arrested by concerted government deficit spending. The measures adopted are unprecedented with huge government transfers augmenting incomes and massive asset purchases greatly assisting the resuscitation of bank and company balance sheets. The spreads on corporate paper shrank while money moved away from government bonds towards higher risk assets.

World stock markets came tearing out of the blocks in the second quarter led by emerging markets. Countries such as India, Indonesia and China were particularly strong, being identified as having less vulnerability to external factors than the developed economies. In the earlier sell-off these same markets had borne the brunt of selling as fund managers, and hedge funds in particular, sought to raise cash in the context of ever dwindling pools of liquidity. The developed markets were also lively with those industries most adversely affected in the preceding quarter, such as financials, home builders and other economically sensitive companies, recovering the most. The trading floor describes this as 'putting the risk trade back on!' but, interestingly, after the initial surge in April there was a flattening out as the quarter progressed.

Platinum Capital Limited has performed very strongly due to successful stock picking and heavy exposure to Asia. In fact, in each geographic area we outperformed the index by a handsome margin, although we surrendered some of that gain to losses made on shorts. Overall the Company outperformed the MSCI by 7.6% for the quarter, 15.8% for the six months and 34.5% for the year.

In absolute terms, our net assets rose by 12.7% (pre-tax) for the quarter, 9.9% for the six months and 18.4% for the year.

Currencies

The A$ has been a star performer since the beginning of 2009. The ideal position would have been to be fully hedged back into the A$ out of the Yen, US$ and Euro. In the six months to 30 June 2009 the A$ appreciated by 26%, 23% and 13% respectively against these currencies.

We at Platinum have been far too conservative, believing that Australia's overseas obligations would weigh heavily on the exchange rate even though our government's total net indebtedness is negligible and our banks are relatively sound. As a consequence we held only about 30% in the A$. By the end of the quarter, we had reduced this further to 24% of the portfolio, the concern being that as the pro-growth trade loses momentum the A$ will lose some support. Our disposition of currencies is shown in the table below.

Shorting

We entered the quarter with the lowest short position for years and, happily, the defensive names that constituted the bulk of our shorts barely moved up as investors used them as funding to purchase more economically sensitive entities. As this occurred, we began to shift the positions out of the defensives into more cyclical stocks, the latter having been significantly up-valued in relation to defensives. We further believed that in the current uncertain climate the defensives would continue to gain support.

At quarter end our shorts represent 18% of the portfolio and are mainly in economically sensitive companies.

There is not much overall change in the portfolio as our transactions have been largely in smaller holdings. Several purchases that were made into the teeth of the sell-off subsequently climbed sharply and were reversed. These included China Mengniu Dairy, which we described in March regarding melamine contamination and which then doubled, Wumart (China retail), Mosaic (fertiliser), Metso (plant engineering), Corning (substrate glass and poly silicon) and Rohm (analog chips). The proceeds were redirected into our larger holdings. The top 20 holdings now account for nearly 37% of our longs.

A large company with very interesting prospects that was added, is China Resources Enterprise. This is a Hong Kong listed subsidiary of a state owned enterprise (SOE) with diverse interests in supermarkets and hypermarkets, beverages (beer and bottled water), rented commercial property and infrastructure. The businesses that caught our attention were retailing and beer. Both have been increasing sales in the high teens and profits are starting to follow. Each area is highly competitive and we have reservations about the business acumen of many SOEs. However, the group has teamed up with a highly experienced partner in beer, namely SABMiller, while in retailing they are following a model of trying to dominate specific regions, and with the help of experts lured from experienced international competitors, seem to be building a successful business. The company is not a complete gift being priced on about 17 times this year's earnings and 1.5 times book, yet the profit potential of its consumer businesses is alluring.

Commentary

Being conscious of the fact that most readers have probably had their fill of media coverage of the “world economic crises”, we will try to follow a different course. Before we do, though, let’s remind ourselves of important observations made in our earlier communications:

- We are in uncharted water and cannot know how the individual will respond to the uncertainties.
- The fiscal and monetary response by a host of nations is unprecedented in scale and scope and is partially experimental.
- The de-stocking cycle that probably bottomed-out in the first quarter of 2009 led to unbounded fear, even panic, and this was expressed in a collapse in the valuation attributed to risk assets; shares, commercial paper and property.
- While reassuring, the recent rally in risk assets does not necessarily mean the system is healed and the pattern of the last thirty years is about to resume. As we noted last quarter, the banks are mostly bereft of equity, aggregate corporate profits had reached extreme levels world-wide and trade imbalances are at huge and probably unsustainable levels.
- Those countries with strong fiscal balances and high savings are likely to recover the quickest.

As we write the conventional view is that the emerging countries of the world are best placed to drag the “world train” out of the shunting yard.

Among the people we met in Beijing on a recent trip to China was a well-regarded Chinese economist who had served the IMF in various postings around the world. He felt the stimulus package of Rmb 4 trillion, some 25% of GDP, together with the massive growth in bank lending, up 30% year-on-year in the first six months of 2009, would allow China to decouple from the industrialised countries. Also, that the changing destination of Chinese exports to Asia, Africa and Latin America would compensate for weak demand elsewhere.

When talking about prospects for growth, among the other BRIC (Brazil, Russia, India and China) economies he argued that India's prospects were sub-par on account of its inadequate infrastructure. This notion has great appeal for those who go to India frequently, as we do, but it depends on your "perspective". While true at first sight, it remains a fact that India has a strong judicial system, cumbersome and creaky though it may be, and a representative system of government. This is still a dream for China. Whether a modern capitalist economy needs representative government is for readers to judge but what is surely not in dispute is the need for a sound judicial system.

This difference in perspective recurred on several occasions during our ten day visit. The most striking was the meeting with investor relations representatives from China South Locomotive and Rolling Stock Corp (CSR). This recently listed SOE, together with its still unlisted northern twin, the CNR, are principal beneficiaries of the massive infrastructure programme just launched by the Central Government. Sadly for us, the meeting started on the wrong foot when we asked why we should share the general enthusiasm for the company's profit prospects. Closer inspection of the presenter's business card would have revealed that apart from being a board member he was also head of the CPC department of propaganda. Our lack of perspective worsened when we persisted in delving into the terms and conditions under which foreign giants like Siemens are required to transfer their technology in order to gain market access. Not that we are unsympathetic to a reversal of roles harking back to the days of the treaty ports¹, but the divergence of views on protectionism and selection on grounds other than commercial merit was a source of friction. Our final opinion was that there will be a lot of trains built but that the sort of profits the brokers are projecting is probably unrealistic.

With the banks having been instructed to lend copiously, credit is exploding in China, in marked contrast to the developed world where credit growth is slowing, notwithstanding government urging, and delinquencies have reached record levels. Interestingly, anecdotal evidence from those Chinese who do not face the daily chatter of markets, fear that this will lead to inflation. Property speculation is snowballing into a frenzy. As in Hong Kong, land development in China requires the payment of a development premium governed by size of the approved floor space (square meters built). The price levels of recent land sales in Beijing are astounding observers. In the most recent auction, a site close to the fourth ring road² went for Rmb 15,000 per m². Considering that building costs of medium grade residential property are approximately Rmb 4,000 per m², the bidder, an SOE, is evidently relying on substantial price appreciation in order to break even. The same pattern is occurring in the other major cities and there is a massive revival of interest in the HK property scene³.

The most encouraging aspect of this development activity is the insistence by the authorities that development is accompanied by ample green space calculated at 60% of each site area. This is resulting in Beijing being an unusually green metropolis. Few modern cities have achieved such a balance and each time one visits Beijing one is reminded of the success of the town planners in having embedded the amenities that are rare in great conurbations. Our accompanying broker thought it was a waste of good building space, another example of the differences in the way of looking at things.

Outlook

Markets have rallied strongly in response to the realisation that the world is no longer looking over the edge of an abyss but this does not alter the fact that a resumption of a high level of economic growth will remain a challenge for most Western countries. The emerging economies will probably do somewhat better though burdened by weaker exports. With this in mind we are puzzled by the strength of commodity markets and believe they are being driven by short-term anomalies which include strategic stockpiling in a world where most currencies are suspect.

Coming off a severely depressed base, profits will improve but utilisation levels are unlikely to be strong, meaning that a recovery to the super profits of earlier years is highly unlikely. The most encouraging aspect of all this uncertainty from our point of view is that there are now plenty of opportunities to find companies that are priced below their potential. Such investments are not confined to those areas of the world that are likely to grow strongly. There are many companies that, while registered as having their head offices in Europe or America, in fact derive a great part of their profit from emerging economies. Their share price sometimes does not reflect this fact.

We have adopted a relatively cautious stance and are delighted at the price at which we can acquire companies of unusual quality that are relatively low risk. We have identified a number of companies well placed to benefit from the stimuli to the system afforded by central bank largesse and government infrastructure spending.

² The fourth ring road built in 2001 is about 8kms from Tiananmen Square. The farthest complete ring around the city is the sixth ring, about 18kms from the centre.

³ Top end residential property in both Shanghai and Beijing is certainly no longer cheap with prize locations, say within the second ring road in Beijing, selling for Rmb 50 to 60,000 per m²; over A$10,000 per m². This contrasts with the average residential selling price recorded in the first five months of 2009 of Rmb 4,450 m² for China as a whole and around Rmb 11,300 per m² for the first tier cities of Beijing, Shanghai, and Shenzhen in the New Territories. The average for Hong Kong is HK$45,000 per m² and the top end is 3 to 5 times this figure.

It is likely to be several years before the consequences of the credit crisis have fully played themselves out. With an earthquake of such magnitude it would be surprising if there were not after-shocks. We will use shorts to exploit the anomalies that are being created by those investors who believe that it was all a bad dream and that the system is nearly fully repaired.

Whether or not matters turn out better than we presently believe, we feel those companies geared to world growth will achieve results superior to those with essentially defensive qualities.

Investment Methodology

Platinum Capital Limited is an investment company listed on the Australian Securities Exchange and open to investors who wish to purchase shares in the same way as one might buy shares in NAB or BHP. Platinum Capital is taxed at source and pays shareholders dividends (usually fully franked). This feature distinguishes it from managed investment trust products.

Platinum Capital delegates the investment function to Platinum Investment Management Limited (trading as Platinum Asset Management). This entity employs an investment team that manages the investments of Platinum Capital. These are two discrete legal entities. As a shareholder in Platinum Capital you have no interest/ownership in Platinum Investment Management Limited or its listed parent, Platinum Asset Management Limited.

Platinum Asset Management's investment process has been well-tested over time. The principles on which it is based have not varied since inception, although refinements continually evolve and develop.

Platinum Asset Management seeks a broad range of investments globally whose businesses and growth prospects, it believes, are being inappropriately valued by the market. By using themes and an industry focus, the portfolio is built up through individual stock selection. Consideration of the macro environment as well as careful evaluation of how the stock will fit and function in the portfolio are also important.

By locating the research efforts together in one place Platinum Asset Management facilitates the cross pollination of ideas that is possible with the free-flow of information between managers with different geographic and industry responsibilities. It has the further benefit that distance acts as a filter and calming influence enabling a more objective assessment of "noisy" markets. This process is well supported by carefully planned and extensive visits to companies and key areas.

The wealth of research and detailed analysis that leads to the consideration of a stock addition/retention/reduction in a portfolio takes form in a disciplined reporting process that is open to the critical scrutiny of divergent thinking peers. This process serves to challenge and encourage analysts and to "test" the investment decision as well as add accountability to the process. Implementation of investment decisions is also given detailed attention as is the on-going review and monitoring of the portfolio.

1. The Board of Directors

Members: Peter Clarke (acting Chair), Bruce Coleman, Bruce Phillips, Richard Morath, Kerr Neilson (Managing Director), Andrew Clifford and Malcolm Halstead.

Changes to Board since last report:

- Graeme Galt deceased, 13 February 2009
- Bruce Phillips appointed 10 March 2009
- Richard Morath appointed 27 March 2009

1.1 Role of the Board

The Board has adopted a Charter, which details the functions and responsibilities of the Board.

The role of the Board is to ensure that:

- the appointed Investment Manager is performing its duties in a skilful and diligent manner, employs qualified and experienced staff and operates appropriate risk monitoring and compliance procedures; and
- the Company operates in compliance with its regulatory environment and good corporate governance practices are adopted.

1.2 Responsibilities of the Board

The principal responsibilities of the Board include:

- overseeing the Company, including its control and accountability systems;
- overseeing and monitoring Platinum Asset Management's compliance with the terms of the Investment Management Agreement;
- monitoring the financial position and performance of the Company;
- identifying the principal risks faced by the Company and ensuring that appropriate control and monitoring systems are in place to manage the impact of these risks;
- overseeing communications and reporting to shareholders;
- ensuring compliance with all laws, governmental regulations and accounting standards; and
- ensuring that good corporate governance practices are adopted.

1.3 Structure of the Board

The Board currently comprises seven Directors: four Non-Executive Directors and three Executive Directors (including the Managing Director).

Prior to 27 March 2009, the Board was represented by an equal number of Non-Executive and Executive Directors. Recommendation 2.1 of the Governance Principles provides that "[a] majority of the board should be independent directors". At the time, the Board considered equal representation was appropriate for the Company given its size and purpose.

The qualifications, experience and term of office of the Directors are provided in The Directors' Report on page 5.

The Chair of the Board is an independent Director, and the roles of Chair and Managing Director (Chief Executive Officer) are not exercised by the same individual.

The Chair is responsible for leadership of the Board and for the efficient organisation and conduct of the Board's functioning.

The Chair facilitates to ensure the effective contribution of all Directors and promote constructive and respectful relations between Directors and between Board and Management.

The Managing Director is responsible for ensuring the terms of the Investment Management Agreement and Administrative Services Agreement are fulfilled by Platinum Asset Management.

1.4 Director Independence

All the current Non-Executive Directors of the Company have been assessed as independent.

In reaching its decision, the Board has taken into account the factors outlined below.

The Board regularly assesses the independence of each Director. For this purpose an Independent Director is a Non-Executive Director whom the Board considers to be independent of Management and free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to interfere with, the exercise of unfettered and independent judgement.

Directors must disclose any material personal or family contract or relationship in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001. Directors also adhere to constraints on their participation and voting in relation to matters in which they may have an interest in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and the Company's policies.

Each Director may from time to time have personal dealings with the Company. Each Director is involved with other companies or professional firms which may from time to time have dealings with the Company.

Details of offices held by Directors with other organisations are set out on page 5 of the Directors' Report. Full details of related party dealings are set out in notes to the Company's accounts as required by law.

In assessing whether Directors are independent, the Board takes into account (in addition to the matters set out above):

- the specific disclosures made by each Director as referred to above;
- where applicable, the related party dealings referable to each Director, noting whether those dealings are material under accounting standards;
- whether a Director is, or is associated directly with, a substantial shareholder of the Company;
- whether the Director has ever been employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- whether the Director is, or is associated with, a supplier, professional adviser, consultant to or customer of the Company which is material under accounting standards; and
- whether the Director personally carries on any role for the Company otherwise than as a Director of the Company.

The Board also has regard to the matters set out in the Governance Principles. The Board does not consider that term of service on the Board should be considered as a factor affecting a Director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company.

1.5 Selection and Appointment of Directors

Recommendation 2.4 of the Governance Principles provides that "[t]he board should establish a nomination committee". Given the size and purpose of the Company, the Board considers a nomination committee is not warranted. The full Board considers the issues that would otherwise be a function of a nomination committee.

When evaluating, selecting and appointing Directors the Board considers:

- the candidate's competencies, qualifications and expertise and his/her fit with the current membership of the Board;
- the candidate's knowledge of the industry in which the Company operates;
- directorships previously held by the candidate and his/her current commitments to other boards and companies;
- existing and previous relationships with the Company and Directors;
- the candidate's independence status and the need for a majority balance on the Board; and
- requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, ASX Listing Rules, the Company's Constitution and Board Policy.

The Board seeks to ensure that:

- its membership represents an appropriate balance between Directors with investment management experience and Directors with an alternative perspective; and
- the size of the Board is conducive to effective discussion and efficient decision-making.

Under the terms of the Company's constitution, all Directors, other than the Managing Director, must retire from office no later than the third Annual General Meeting following their last election and that one-third of the Directors are to retire from office at each Annual General Meeting. Where eligible, a Director may stand for re-election.

1.6 Access to Information and Independent Advice

All Directors have unrestricted access to Company records and information.

The Investment Manager provides regular information and reports to the Board (as requested).

The Board of Directors' Charter provides that the Directors may seek independent professional advice at the Company's expense, after first notifying the Board.

The Board will review the estimated costs for reasonableness, but will not impede the seeking of advice.

1.7 Performance Assessment

The Board undertakes an annual self assessment of its collective performance, as well as the performance of its Committees.

The Board reviews its performance in terms of Company objectives, Company results and achievements of the Investment Manager.

The Board ensures each Director has the necessary skills, experience and expertise, and the mix remains appropriate for the Board to function effectively. This assessment was undertaken during August 2009.

Independent professional advice may be sought as part of this process.

Recommendation 1.2 of the Governance Principles provides that "[c]ompanies should disclose the process for evaluating the performance of senior executives".

As the Company has no senior executives other than the Executive Directors of the Board and the Executive Directors are not remunerated by the Company, it is considered appropriate that their performance be assessed as part of the collective review outlined above.

2. Board Committees

The Board may establish committees to assist in the execution of its duties and (from time to time) to deal with matters of special importance.

Each committee has a documented and approved Charter under which authority is delegated from the Board.

2.1 Audit and Risk Committee

Members: Peter Clarke (Chair until 7 August 2009), Bruce Coleman, Bruce Phillips and Richard Morath.

Changes to the Committee since last Report:

- . Graeme Galt, deceased, 13 February 2009
- . Bruce Phillips appointed 10 March 2009
- . Richard Morath appointed 27 March 2009 (Chair of Committee from 7 August 2009)

The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the financial reporting and accounting practices of the company.

Its key responsibilities are to:

- review and recommend to the Board the financial statements (including key financial and accounting principles adopted by the Company);
- review and monitor risks and the implementation of mitigation measures for those risks as appropriate;
- assess and recommend to the Board the appointment of external auditors;
- monitor the conduct of audits;
- monitor the Company's compliance with its statutory obligations;
- review and monitor the adequacy of management information and internal control systems; and
- ensure that any Shareholder queries relating to such matters are dealt with expeditiously.

All members of the Committee are Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Recommendation 4.2 of the Governance Principles provides that "[t]he audit committee should be structured so that it is chaired by an independent chair, who is not chair of the board and has at least three members". Following Mr Galt's passing, the Committee operated with two members (from 13 February to 10 March 2009) and P Clarke (Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee) was appointed as acting Chair of the Board (from 13 February to 30 June 2009).

These temporary positions would be rectified following a re-organisation of the Board.

All matters determined by the Committee are submitted to the full Board as recommendations for Board decisions. Minutes of a Committee meeting are tabled at the subsequent Board meeting. Additional requirements for specific reporting by the Committee to the Board are addressed in the Charter.

2.2 Remuneration Committee

Recommendation 8.1 of the Governance Principles provides that "[t]he board should establish a remuneration committee".

Given the size of the Company and the fact that the Executive Directors are not remunerated by the Company, the Board has determined that a remuneration committee is not warranted.

Remuneration for the Non-Executive Directors is set at market rates commensurate with the responsibilities borne by the Non-Executive Directors.

The Executive Directors review and determine the remuneration of the Non-Executive Directors accordingly. Independent professional advice may be sought.

Further information is provided in the Remuneration Report set out on pages 6 to 7 of the Directors' Report.

Remuneration paid to the Non-Executive Directors for the 2008/2009 reporting year is set out on page 6 to 7 of the Directors' Report.

3. Company Auditor

The policy of the Board is to appoint auditors who clearly demonstrate competence and independence.

The performance of the Auditor is reviewed annually and applications for tender of external audit services are requested as deemed appropriate, taking into consideration assessment of performance, existing value and tender costs.

PricewaterhouseCoopers was appointed as the Auditor to the Company in 1994.

It is PricewaterhouseCoopers policy to rotate audit engagement partners on listed companies at least every five years.

An analysis of fees paid to the Auditor, including a break-down of fees for non-audit services, is provided in the Directors' Report.

It is the policy of the external Auditor to provide an annual declaration of its independence to the Audit and Risk Committee.

The external Auditor will attend the Company's Annual General Meeting and be available to answer shareholder questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the Auditor's Report.

4. Company Policies

4.1 Directors' Code of Conduct

The Board has adopted a Directors' Code of Conduct which is based upon the Australian Institute of Company Directors' Code of Conduct. It requires the Directors to act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of the Company as a whole, whilst in accordance with the letter (and spirit) of the law.

The Investment Manager, Platinum Asset Management, imposes the same rules on itself and its employees.

- The Company's financial reports are complete and present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the financial condition and operational results of the Company and are in accordance with relevant Accounting Standards.

- The above statement is founded on a sound system of risk management and internal compliance and control which implements the policies adopted by the Board and that the Company's risk management and internal compliance and control system is operating efficiently and effectively in all material respects.

4.4 Continuous Disclosure

The Board is committed to:

- the promotion of investor confidence by ensuring that trading in Company shares takes place in an efficient, competitive and informed market;
- complying with the Company's disclosure obligations under the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act 2001; and
- ensuring the Company's stakeholders have the opportunity to access externally available information issued by the Company.

The Company Secretary is responsible for coordinating the disclosure of information to Regulators and shareholders, and ensuring that any notifications/reports to the ASX are promptly posted on the Company's website.

4.5 Shareholder Communication

The Board has adopted a Communications Plan which describes the Board's policy for ensuring shareholders and potential investors of the Company receive or obtain access to information publicly released by the Company. The Company's primary portals are its website, Annual Report, AGM, Half-Yearly Report, Quarterly Investment Report and monthly notices to the ASX.

The Company Secretary oversees and coordinates the distribution of all information by the Company to the ASX, shareholders, the media and the public.

4.6 Risk Assessment and Management

The Board, through the Audit and Risk Committee, is responsible for ensuring that:

- there are adequate policies for the oversight and management of material business risks to the Company;
- there are effective systems in place to identify, assess, monitor and manage the risks of the Company and to identify material changes to the Company's risk profile; and

The Executive Directors have reported to the Board as to the effectiveness of the Company's management of its material business risks.

The Investment Manager and Administrator, Platinum Asset Management, has implemented risk management and compliance frameworks based on AS/NZS 4360:2004 Risk Management Standard and AS 3806-2006 Compliance Programs. These frameworks (together with the firm's internal audit function) ensure that:

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

30 June 2009

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial report are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

The financial report was authorised for issue by the Directors of the Company on 7 August 2009.

(a) Basis of Preparation

This general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board, Urgent Issues Group Interpretations and the Corporations Act 2001.

Compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

Australian Accounting Standards include Australian Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AIFRS). Compliance with AIFRS ensures that the financial report of the Company, and notes thereto, complies with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

Historical Cost Convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of "financial assets (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss".

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with AIFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and judgements, which are included below.

The Balance Sheet is presented in decreasing order of liquidity.

(b) Income Tax

The income tax expense or benefit for the period is the tax payable on the current period taxable income based on the current income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities, and their carrying amounts in the financial statements, and to unused tax losses.

Under AASB 112: Income Taxes, deferred tax balances are determined using the balance sheet method which calculates temporary differences based on the carrying amounts of an entity's assets and liabilities in the Balance Sheet and their associated tax bases.

The Company exercises judgement in determining the extent of recognition of deferred tax assets, in relation to unrealised tax losses and whether future realised taxable profits are expected to be sufficient, to allow recovery of these losses.

(c) Financial Assets at Fair Value through Profit or Loss

Under AASB 139, marketable equity securities are classified in the Balance Sheet as "financial assets at fair value through profit or loss".

These include financial assets that have quoted prices in active markets and can be reliably measured.

This designation is consistent with the Investment Manager's general stock selection policy of selecting investments that are liquid and actively traded. These investments are initially recognised at fair value, excluding transaction costs, which are expensed as incurred.

Investments are valued based on quoted "bid" prices on long securities. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the financial assets are included in the Income Statement in the period in which they arise.

In accordance with AIFRS, derivative financial instruments are categorised as "financial assets held for trading" and are accounted for at fair value, with changes to such values recognised through the Income Statement in the period in which they arise. Derivative financial instruments are valued based on quoted "bid" prices for long equity swaps and long futures. Short equity swaps and short futures are valued based on quoted "ask" prices. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the financial assets are included in the Income Statement in the period in which they arise.

Forward currency contracts are categorised as "financial assets held for trading" and are initially recognised at fair value on the date contracts are entered into and are subsequently remeasured at each reporting date. The fair value is the unrealised profit or loss on the foreign currency position (in Australian dollars).

Fair value in an active market

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets is based on their quoted market prices at reporting date without any deduction for estimated future selling costs. Long securities, long equity swaps and long futures are priced at "bid" prices, while short equity swaps and short futures are priced at "ask" prices.

Fair value in an inactive or unquoted market

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. These include the use of recent arm's length market transactions, discounted cash flow techniques, option pricing models or any other valuation technique that provides a reliable estimate of prices obtained in actual market transactions.

Recognition/derecognition

The Company recognises financial assets on the date they become party to the purchase contractual agreement (trade date) and recognises changes in fair value of the financial assets from this date.

Financial assets are no longer recognised on the date they become party to the sale contractual agreement (trade date).

(d) Transaction Costs

Initial measurement (cost) on acquisition of trading securities shall not include directly attributable transaction costs such as fees and commissions paid to agents. Incremental transaction costs are expensed as incurred in the Income Statement.

(e) Foreign Currency Translation

The functional and presentation currency of the Company as determined in accordance with AASB 121: The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates will be the Australian dollar.

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Australian currency at the rates of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency assets and liabilities existing at balance date are translated at the closing exchange rates prevailing at balance date. Resulting exchange rate differences are brought to account in determining profit and loss for the year.

(f) Investment Income

Interest income

Interest income is recognised in the Income Statement using the effective interest method, which allocates income over the relevant period.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

30 June 2009

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES continued

(f) Investment Income continued

Dividend income

Dividend income is brought to account on the applicable ex-dividend date.

(g) Directors' Entitlements

Liabilities for Directors' entitlements to fees are accrued at nominal amounts calculated on the basis of current fees rates.

Contributions to Directors' superannuation plans are charged as an expense as the contributions are paid or become payable.

(h) Earnings per Share

Basic and diluted earnings per share are determined by dividing the profit after income tax by the weighted number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

(i) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the Cash Flow Statement, cash includes deposits at call and cash at bank, which are readily convertible to cash on hand.

Cash at the end of the financial year, as shown in the Cash Flow Statement, is reconciled to the related item in the Balance Sheet.

(j) Receivables

All receivables are recognised as and when they are due.

Debts which are known to be uncollectible are written off. A provision for doubtful debts is raised when there is evidence the amount will not be collected.

(k) Payables

All payables and trade creditors are recognised as and when the Company becomes liable.

(l) Contributed Equity

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

(m) Dividends

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared or determined by the Directors on or before the end of the financial year but not paid at balance date.

(n) Rounding of amounts

The Company is of a kind referred to in the Australian Securities & Investments Commission's Class Order 98/0100 (as amended) and consequently amounts in the financial report and financial statements have been rounded off to the nearest thousand dollars in accordance with that Class Order, unless otherwise indicated.

(o) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST is not recoverable from the tax authority. In this case, it is recognised as part of the cost of the acquisition of the asset or has been expensed.

(p) New Accounting Standards and Interpretations

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for the 30 June 2009 reporting period. Our assessment of the impact of these new standards and interpretations is set out below:

(i) AASB 101: Presentation of Financial Statements and AASB 2007-8: Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards (AASB 101)

The revised AASB 101 was issued in September 2007 and is applicable for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009.

It requires the presentation of a Statement of Comprehensive Income and makes changes to the Statement of Comprehensive Income and to the Statement of Changes in Equity, but will not affect any of the amounts recognised in the financial statements. If the Company has made prior period adjustments or reclassified items in the financial statements, it will need to disclose a third Balance Sheet (Statement of Financial Position), as at the beginning of the comparative period.

The Company intends to apply the revised standard from 1 July 2009.

(ii) AASB 8: Operating Segments and AASB 2007-3: Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards (AASB 107 & AASB 134)

AASB 8 and AASB 2007-3 are applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009. AASB 8 requires the adoption of a "management approach" to disclosing information about its reportable segments. Generally, the financial information will be reported on the same basis as is used internally by the chief decision maker for evaluating operating segment performance and deciding how to allocate resources to operating segments. The amendments may have an impact on the Company segment disclosures. However, the amendment will not affect any of the amounts recognised in the Company's financial statements. The Company has not adopted this standard early.

(iii) AASB 2008-5: Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from the Annual Improvement Project (effective from

1 January 2009) and AASB 2008-6: Further Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from the Annual Improvement Project (effective from 1 July 2009)

These Standards make a number of amendments. The most relevant one for the Company being to AASB 139: Financial Instrument Recognition and Measurement. The revised AASB 139 is applicable to reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009.

This amendment clarifies the definition of "financial asset or financial liability at fair value through profit or loss" as it relates to items that are held for trading. A financial asset or liability that is part of a portfolio of financial instruments managed together with evidence of an actual recent pattern of short-term profit taking is included in such a portfolio on initial recognition. The amendment is consistent with the Company's existing policies and is not expected to have an impact on adoption. The Company has not adopted this standard early.

(iv) AASB 2009-2: Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards - Improving Disclosures about Financial Instruments

AASB 2009-2 is applicable to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009. The amendments require enhanced disclosures about fair value measurements and liquidity risk, including:

(i) the introduction of a three-level hierarchy for making fair value measurements and (ii) the reliability of fair value measurements.

The amendments may have an impact on the Company disclosures. However, the amendment will not affect any of the amounts recognised in the Company's financial statements. The Company has not adopted this standard early.

12. Financial Risk Management

(a) Financial Risk Management Objectives, Policies and Processes

The Company's primary risks are related to the investment activities undertaken on its behalf by the Investment Manager. The risks the Investment Manager is exposed to include market risk (including currency and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The Investment Manager's investment style:

- (i) adopts a bottom-up, stock selection methodology in which long-term capital growth is sought through investing in undervalued securities across the world;
- (ii) seeks absolute returns and not returns relative to any index;
- (iii) utilises short selling of shares and indices (via equity swaps and futures);
- (iv) invests excess funds in cash when undervalued stocks cannot be found; and
- (v) actively manages currency.

Derivatives (which include equity swaps and futures) are utilised for risk management purposes and to take opportunities to increase returns.

The underlying value of derivatives held by the Company may not exceed 100% of the portfolio value.

The underlying value of long stocks and derivative contracts may not exceed 150% of the portfolio value.

Where options are employed, the underlying value will be delta adjusted exposure.

Compliance with these limits is reviewed by the Board and Audit and Risk Committee on a continuous basis.

The Company does not enter or trade derivatives for speculative purposes.

The "Physical" column shows the location of the Company's investments.

The "Net Exposure" represents an approximation of the Investment Portfolio's exposure to movements in markets. This is calculated by making an adjustment to the "Physical" position, by subtracting, from the physical position, the principal notional amount of any short (sold) and add any long (bought) derivative positions in shares or share index futures. For example, if 5% of the Portfolio was invested in Japan but there was a 2% short position in Nikkei futures, then the net exposure column would show 3%. Conceivably the figure could show a negative exposure which would indicate the Portfolio was net short the Japanese market.

(c) Market Risk

(i) Foreign Exchange Risk

Foreign exchange risk is the risk the fair values or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

The Company operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from buying, selling and holding investments denominated in foreign currency. The Investment Manager selects stocks based on value regardless of geographic location.

Currency hedging is an integral part of the management of currency risk. The Investment Manager may position the Company's Portfolio in what it believes will be a stronger currency(ies). At 30 June 2009, the Company's principal currency exposures were Australian Dollar (24%), Euro (22%), Japanese Yen (13%) and the US Dollar (13%). This relatively large exposure to the Australian Dollar helped offset some of the losses that occurred from the Australian Dollar which has been rising since January 2009.

The Investment Manager may use forward foreign exchange contracts, and futures and option contracts on foreign exchange rate contracts, to position the Portfolio in the desired currencies. A currency exposure may be hedged into a different currency from which the exposure is maintained (for example, US Dollar hedges may be used to hedge the currency risk of holding investments in Hong Kong Dollars).

Where there have been major currency movements, or where currencies are perceived to be over or undervalued, the Investment Manager may look for investments whose operating environment has been distorted by the currency as part of the search for undervalued stocks. There may be even opportunities to invest in stocks impacted by a lower currency (for example, export-oriented stocks).

Forward foreign currency contracts and options on forward currency contracts are adjusted against the "physical" column to arrive at a "Net Exposure" for each currency grouping. The Company generally utilises short dated (90 day maturities) currency agreements with high-credit rated counterparties. The existing forward currency contract positions' maturity dates range from 15 days to 75 days.

Foreign exchange risk sensitivity analysis

At 30 June 2009, had the Australian Dollar weakened/strengthened by 10% against the Japanese Yen with all other variables held constant, net profit would have been A$2,880,110/A$2,356,454 higher/lower (2008:A$3,889,477/A$3,271,991 higher/lower). Likewise, had the Australian Dollar weakened/strengthened by 10% against the Euro with all other variables held constant, net profit would have been A$4,736,830/A$3,875,588 higher/lower (2008:A$2,806,911/A$2,296,564 higher/lower). Similarly, had the Australian Dollar weakened/strengthened by 10% against the US Dollar with all other variables held constant, net profit would have been A$2,938,914/A$2,404,568 higher/lower (2008:A$4,714,869/A$2,180,496 higher/lower).

A sensitivity of 10% has been selected as this is considered reasonably possible given the volatility of current exchange rates.

The sensitivity analysis is based on the impact of foreign currency movements on monetary assets and liabilities, held at reporting date, such as cash and forward contracts, as well as non-monetary assets, such as equities.

The sensitivity analysis shows that the Company is materially affected by exchange rate movements (other things being equal) given the global nature of the investments held.

Since January 2009, the Australian Dollar started to appreciate against major currencies and hence currency hedging was undertaken to mitigate some of the adverse impact on returns.

(ii) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the possibility the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The overwhelming majority of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are non-interest bearing as the Company has a policy of not borrowing, other than for settlement of trades. Therefore, there is no liability exposure to interest rate risk.

Interest rate risk indirectly affects the Company, because interest rate movements will affect forward points used in determining gains or losses on forward contracts.

The impact of interest rate movements on our investments is not capable of precise estimation.

At 30 June 2009 and 2008, if interest rates had changed by +/- 100 basis points with all other variables held constant, the direct impact on interest receivable would not be significant for the Company.

12. Financial Risk Management (continued)

(c) Market Risk (continued)

(iii) Price Risk

Market prices fluctuate because of a range of factors specific to the individual investments, or factors affecting the market in general.

Platinum's stock selection process is core to the management of price risk. Platinum adopts a thematic stock selection approach and is referred to as being an "active manager". The Investment Manager seeks a broad range of investments whose businesses and growth prospects, it believes, are being undervalued by the market. Accordingly, holdings in the Company may vary considerably from the make-up of a general index. Investment Managers such as Platinum Asset Management seek to outperform the market as represented by an appropriate index.

An additional risk management tool is that the Company may enter into short equity swaps and futures to protect against market movements. At 30 June 2009, the Company maintained short positions predominantly against company specific stocks.

Price risk sensitivity analysis

Price risk exposure arises from the Company's investment portfolio which comprises investments in listed and unlisted securities and derivatives. The effect on profit due to a possible change in market factors, as represented by a +/- 5% movement in key regional equity indices affecting the market (and securities/derivatives) that the Company predominantly invests in, with all other variables held constant, is indicated as follows:

At 30 June 2009 if the United States S&P index had increased/decreased by 5% with all other variables held constant, this would have increased/decreased profit of the Company by approximately A$623,447 (2008: A$1,563,136). Similarly, if the Japanese Nikkei 225 index had increased/decreased by 5% with all other variables held constant, this would have increased/decreased profit of the Company by approximately A$2,143,634 (2008: A$1,462,216).

A sensitivity of 5% has been selected as this is considered reasonably possible. However, given the present volatility of global markets, increases or decreases greater than this are possible.

The above analysis is based on the assumption the Company's investments move in correlation with the indices. The indices provided above are a reference points only. Actual movements in stock prices may vary significantly to movements in the index.

The above sensitivity analysis for price risk is unrepresentative of the market exposure for the Company because the Investment Manager does not invest by reference to the weighting or inclusion of a security in a specific index. An investment management style where the composition of the portfolio is by reference to global share index weightings are often referred to as "index managers". Index managers try to match a particular index by investing in securities that are representative of that index.

(d) Credit Risk

Credit risk relates to the risk of a counterparty defaulting on a financial obligation resulting in a loss to the Company (typically "non-equity" financial instruments).

The exposure to credit risk for futures, equity swaps, and forward currency contracts is any unrealised profit, margins and collateral paid on the positions (the money the Company would lose if the counterparty defaulted) at reporting date.

The Investment Manager regularly monitors the Company's credit risk exposure to counterparties and seeks to manage the risk by spreading exposure over a number of counterparties, by signing standard ISDA (International Swaps and Derivatives Association) master agreement and net settlement contracts, employing two-way symmetrical margining of unrealised profits and losses and by controlling the duration of contracts to be short-term.

Transactions in listed securities and investments generally, are only entered into with approved brokers. Payment is only made once a broker has received securities and delivery of securities sold only occurs once the broker receives payment.

Ageing analysis

The Company's ageing analysis of receivables at 30 June 2009 is $1,494,549 (0-30 days) (2008: $287,769), $7,757 (31-60 days) (2008: $16,773), $118,179 (61-90 days) (2008: $15,892) $1,216,300 (90+ days) (2008: $2,501,276).

(e) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities.

This includes the risk that the Company:

- (i) will not have sufficient funds to settle a transaction on the due date; and
- (ii) will be forced to sell financial assets at a value which is less than they are worth.

At 30 June 2009, the contractual maturity for amounts payable is no more than three months for unsettled trades which total $267,773 (2008: $1,141), other payables including Performance fees, other trade creditors and dividends payable which total $5,769,257 (2008: $641,024). The Company has sufficient funds to meet these liabilities as the value of assets realisable in one year or less is $202,612,000 (2008: $164,136,000).

Assets that are realisable in one year or less include equities, derivatives, cash and cash equivalents.

At 30 June 2009, contractual maturity for settlement of derivative contractual outflows is $784,288 (2008:$24,525) for amounts payable within three months.

At 30 June 2009, there are no other contractual amounts due or payable after three months.

Except for equity swaps and futures, the maximum capital risk resulting from financial instruments is determined by the fair value of financial instruments.

Potential losses from equity swaps and futures are limited to available capital.

The risk management guidelines adopted are designed to minimise liquidity risk through:

- (i) ensuring that there is no significant exposure to illiquid or thinly traded financial instruments; and
- (ii) applying limits to ensure there is no concentration of liquidity risk to a particular counterparty or market.

The investment Manager prepares daily cash forecasts for the Company and maintains sufficient cash to meet normal operating requirements.

The Company has a policy of not borrowing money, other than on a short term basis for settlement, trading and like purposes.

(f) Fair Value Estimation

Please refer to Note 1(c).

(g) Capital Risk Management

The Company considers its capital to comprise ordinary share capital and accumulated retained earnings.

The Company's objective is to seek long-term capital growth by investing in undervalued securities across the world, so to continue to provide returns to shareholders. The Directors have a policy of smoothing dividend payments over time, but this is subject to the return over time from the investment portfolio. In addition, the Company may adjust its capital structure by issuing new shares, via rights issues, share purchase plans or dividend reinvestment plans.

The Company is an ASX-listed investment company and is subject to various ASX Listing Rules requirements. For example, the Company must report its net asset value to the ASX on a monthly basis.

15. Investment Manager

The Investment Manager Platinum Investment Management Limited receives a monthly Management fee for investment services provided in accordance with the Investment Management Agreement. This Agreement provides for a Management fee payable monthly and calculated at 1.5% per annum of the Portfolio Value (which includes cash and deposits).

A Performance fee is payable at 10% of the amount by which the Portfolio's annual performance exceeds the return achieved by the MSCI plus 5% (MSCI is the Morgan Stanley Capital International All Country World Net Index in A$). Where the Portfolio's annual performance is less than the MSCI, the amount of the underperformance is aggregated, carried forward and deducted from the annual performance in the subsequent year before calculating any Performance fee for that year. The aggregate of underperformance is carried forward until a Performance fee becomes payable.

At 30 June 2009, the annual pre-tax performance of the portfolio was positive 22.05% and the corresponding MSCI was negative 16.10%. This represents an outperformance of 38.15% against the MSCI and 32.46% after the carry forward net underperformance amount of 0.69% and the 5% MSCI hurdle. Accordingly, a Performance fee of $5,147,000 is payable at 30 June 2009.

The investment Manager is to be paid a lump sum termination fee of 1.5%, calculated on the value of the Portfolio on the first day of the month in which termination is effective. The fee is not payable if the termination results from the default or insolvency of the Investment Manager. Additionally, a Performance fee is payable for the period from the last calculation of the Performance fee (as described above) to the date of termination.

Fees paid and payable to the Investment Manager for the year is shown in the table below:
