UPDATE ON NOMAD'S QUEENSLAND OPERATIONS

Nomad Building Solutions Limited (ASX Code: NOD) wishes to advise that the operations of its wholly owned "Nomad Modular Building – Queensland" and "Halley Homes" businesses are largely unaffected by the recent flood events in Queensland. Minor disruptions have occurred due to power outages and the logistics of getting to and from the Company's production facilities.

A significant amount of new work has been secured in recent months by the Company's Queensland businesses in accommodation units, housing, rental sales and specialty commercial buildings and their order books are growing.

Mr Brett McDonald, CEO of Nomad Eastern States, said "the new company structure and recent capital raising by Nomad Building Solutions Limited has been viewed positively by customers and our Queensland businesses have won in excess of $11 million worth of new work in the past month".
