SUDA's Subsidiary Wins Major Tender

SUDA Ltd's subsidiary company, Westcoast Surgical and Medical Supplies Pty Ltd (Westcoast), is a sales and logistics operation for medical devices and consumables based in Western Australia.

Westcoast has been successful in securing preferred supplier status for a major, government-funded organisation, through a tendering process for the supply of pharmaceuticals, consumables, equipment and vaccines.

The result of this tender outcome will have a significant effect on Westcoast's revenue and profitability.

Westcoast is a service-oriented business and operates in a competitive industry. Being awarded the preferred supplier status for a major group is testimony to the management and staff and their perseverance and commitment to meeting the needs of its customers.

The key values of Westcoast is reflected in its focus on Flexible Solutions and Innovative Service
