Compulsory Partial Surrender

International Exploration Pty Ltd a wholly owned subsidiary of Australasian Resources Ltd. (ASX:ARH or Australasian) announces as supplementary advice to the recently released September Quarterly Cashflow Report that the company as part of its Joint Venture with Metals Australia (ASX:MLS) the company has completed a Compulsory Partial Surrender.

This surrender has occurred over tenements E47/1769 and E 47/1770 which were granted on September 7th 2009 and are therefore due for a compulsory reduction of 40% of the initial area granted. Based on previous work completed on the tenements and advice of the company's consultant geologist the most prospective areas of the tenements have been retained.

The ownership of the joint venture remains at International Exploration Ltd 70% and Metals Australia 30%
