SINO GAS HOLDS CONSTRUCTIVE INITIAL DISCUSSIONS WITH POTENTIAL NEW JV PARTNER

- ~ Initial discussions held with China New Energy Mining Limited regarding their US$220 million acquisition of MIE's entire 51% interest in Joint Venture Company, SGE
- ~ Management's initial assessment highlights a well-financed, strongly aligned potential new partner
- ~ Sino Gas is looking forward to working with China New Energy Mining Limited to deliver the potential of our Ordos basin assets assuming successful completion of the transaction

Sino Gas & Energy Holdings Limited (ASX: SEH, "Sino Gas" or the "Company") is pleased to announce initial positive discussions have been held with China New Energy Mining Limited ("CNEML") following the announcement of their intended purchase of Asia Oil & Gas Ltd, which holds MIE Holdings Corporation's ("MIE", HKSE Ticker 1555) entire 51% interest in the Joint Venture subsidiary, Sino Gas Energy Limited (the "Joint Venture" or "SGE"). For further details on the proposed transaction, refer to Sino Gas' and MIE's announcements on 27 April 2016.

Sino Gas has held extensive initial discussions with the senior management team of CNEML. Based on these discussions, as well as independent review, Sino Gas management have made the following key assessments:

- CNEML has a very competent and experienced management team with strong technical and commercial backgrounds gained by working for both Chinese SOE's and international Exploration and Production companies
- Extensive technical, commercial and regulatory due diligence has been conducted by CNEML on the assets
- CNEML has a clear vision of the significant potential of the Linxing and Sanjiaobei PSCs
- CNEML has a thorough understanding of the work necessary to achieve this potential which is strongly aligned with Sino Gas' objectives of creating value through production growth and achieving Chinese Reserve Report and Overall Development Plan approvals for full-field development
- CNEML has strong financial backing and access to capital to achieve the planned speed and scale of development and production ramp-up
- CNEML have well established relationships in China with government, partners and customers
- Near term work plan priorities are consistent with Sino Gas, namely, ramping up production and working towards Overall Development Plan approval in 2017

Sino Gas and CNEML have discussed the key aspects of working together to deliver a seamless transition and ensure that the 2016 work program remains on-track. In anticipation of deal completion expected in mid-2016, a joint team has been formed to agree plans and priorities to optimise field operations and drive towards production ramp-up and full field development.

Under the existing shareholders' agreement, affirmative votes by both parties are required to approve key operational and strategic decisions. It is currently anticipated that the existing SGE management team and staff will remain in-place, which will facilitate a smooth integration.

About Sino Gas & Energy Holdings Limited

Sino Gas & Energy Holdings Limited ("Sino Gas" ASX: SEH) is an Australian energy company focused on developing natural gas assets in China. Sino Gas holds a 49% interest in Sino Gas & Energy Limited ("SGE") through a strategic partnership completed with MIE Holdings Corporation ("MIE" SEHK: 1555) in July 2012. SGE has been established in Beijing since 2006 and is the operator of the Linxing and Sanjiaobei Production Sharing Contracts (PSCs) in the Ordos Basin, Shanxi province.

SGE's interest in the Linxing PSC with CUCBM is 64.75% and 49% for the Sanjiaobei PSC held with PCCBM. SGE has a 100% working interest during the exploration phase of the PSC, with SGE's PSC partners being entitled to back-in upon Overall Development Plan (ODP) approval, by contributing development and operating costs in line with their PSC interest.

The PSCs are located in the Ordos Basin and cover an area of approximately 3,000km<sup>2</sup>. The Ordos Basin is the largest onshore gas producing basin in China. The region has mature field developments with an established pipeline infrastructure to major markets. Rapid economic development is being experienced in the provinces in which Sino Gas' PSCs are located and natural gas is seen as a key component of clean energy supply in China.

Sino Gas & Energy Holdings Limited (ASX: SEH) was admitted to the Official List of ASX in 2009.
