Chris Thorpe, CEO said: "Mobile Embrace has again delivered strong growth on all the key metrics of Revenue, EBITDA, NPAT and EPS growth year on year. We again exceeded guidance with revenue of $60.6 million and EBITDA of $9.5 million which demonstrates the strength, scalability and momentum of the business."

The Company invested in the expansion of its operational infrastructure by continuing to establish multiple new international territories whilst maintaining profitability. Mobile Embrace is strategically positioned to benefit from the global uptake of mobile which continues to grow in importance at a considerable pace and is clearly here to stay and be a major part of our everyday life.

Our focus in FY17 is to continue delivering sustainable growth from our operations which are highly scalable and are generating strong cash flows.

Industry forecasts continue to point to strong and continued growth in the mobile payments and mobile marketing sectors which gives MBE the perfect environment in which to deliver its 3-year strategy."
