Updater Inc. (“Updater” or the “Company”), the US technology company making the moving process easier for the 17 million US households moving each year, is pleased to announce that Lindsey Dole has been appointed Vice President of People Operations.

Lindsey will oversee the Company’s initiatives for attracting, retaining and developing the Company’s most important asset: it’s people. Lindsey will also be responsible for scaling the Company’s internal operations.

Lindsey’s appointment follows Updater’s successful completion of a private placement which has increased the Company’s cash position to approximately US$34.5 million (equivalent to over A$45 million). The Company has previously announced that it plans to expand its Sales, Client Support, Product and Engineering teams to accelerate growth of market share and bring forward the development of core Business Products.

David Greenberg, CEO of Updater, commented, “Lindsey has exceptional experience scaling a high growth tech company from her time at Tumblr. Lindsey joins us at a key time in our development as we now seek to expand our headcount over the next year and scale operations. We believe that she is one of the most talented people operations experts in New York City and we’re thrilled that she is joining us.”

Tumblr is one of New York's most successful technology companies. Tumblr hosts well over 100 million different blogs, and reached 300 million monthly unique visitors and 120,000 daily sign-ups. In 2013, Yahoo acquired Tumblr for US$1.1 billion. Lindsey helped grow Tumblr from 50 to over 300 employees and helped lead the company to a valuation of over US$1 billion.

Prior to Tumblr, Lindsey worked as a recruiter at Google. Lindsey holds a Masters degree in organizational psychology from Columbia University.

Lindsey will begin work at the Company in early November.
