ASX Announcement/Media Release

Combined Super renews superannuation administration services agreement with MainstreamBPO

- SuperBPO named by Combined Super as its preferred administration services provider
- Key service agreement for the Group

MainstreamBPO Limited group (ASX: MAI) (MainstreamBPO or the Group) today announced that industry superannuation fund Combined Super has renewed its administration services agreement (Agreement) with Group subsidiary SuperBPO Pty Ltd (SuperBPO) for a further three years.

SuperBPO can trace its connection to Combined Super back over three decades, and nowadays provides corporate services, member administration, accounting, member advice and engagement and employer group support to Combined Super. The Group also provides unit pricing to Combined Super.

Commenting on the Agreement George Kogios, Chairman of Combined Super, said “We are pleased to continue our long standing relationship with SuperBPO. Through their personalised service model and proactive member support we can enhance members’ long-term financial position, well-being and security.”

SuperBPO Chief Executive Officer Michael Houlihan said “Over many years we have worked closely with Combined Super to ensure we raise the bar for best practice in superannuation administration. We look forward to continuing the strong and enduring relationship between SuperBPO and Combined Super, our single biggest client.”

Combined Super is a major provider of superannuation products to the private education sector. Today Combined Super includes approximately 10,000 member accounts spread over more than 150 employers and assets of over $820 million.
