6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Complies	The Board encourages full participation of shareholders at the Company's AGMs and any general meetings to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategy. Shareholder meetings are held at a venue that is easily accessible to shareholders and the Company uses technology to facilitate the participation of shareholders in meetings including the use of teleconference facilities.
6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complies	All shareholders are given the option to receive and send communications electronically. The Company provides a communications preference form to all new shareholders as part of the shareholder welcome pack.
7.	Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Does not comply	Refer to Item 4.1 of this table. In addition, the Investment Manager is primarily responsible for managing the risk of the Portfolio. Other third parties (such as UBS AG, Sydney Branch (as prime broker), UBS Nominees Pty Limited (as custodian) and the Administrator assist with compliance. The Investment Manager's risk policies and controls are designed to be robust and relevant to the Company's investment objective and strategy. Such policies are disclosed in the Prospectus.
7.2	The Board or a committee of the Board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	Complies	The Board reviews the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound. The Company reviewed the risk management framework once during the reporting period.

7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Complies	The Board does not have an internal audit function. Responsibility for evaluating and improving the effectiveness of the Company's risk management and internal control processes lies with the Board as set out in the Company's Board Policy that is contained in section 2.2 of the Corporate Governance Charter, which is available on the Company's website at www.aepfund.com.au .
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complies	The Company has economic risk. The risks and how they will be managed are set out in the Annual Report.
8.	Remunerate fairly and responsibly
8.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or	Does not comply	The Board has not established a remuneration committee. The Board considers the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and the fact that it does not have any employees. Should the size of the Company change the Company will consider establishing a separate remuneration committee. The Board will ensure that appropriate remuneration policies and practices are in place for non-executive Directors, executive directors (if any) and senior management (if any), while having regard to the ASX Recommendations.
	(b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.		The Board will annually review the allocation and amount of remuneration for executive directors (if any) and non-executive Directors and this will reflect market rates. The Company does not have any senior executives.
8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Complies	Refer to Item 8.1 of this table. The current remuneration of the non-executive Directors is set out in the Annual Report. There are no executive directors or other senior executives.
