

ASX Net – Connectivity to Chi-X

ASX Net is extending its services to provide customers with application neutral connectivity to Chi-X.

ASX Net provides two simple, application agnostic and cost-effective options for connecting to Chi-X from an ASX Net site.

- A. Direct ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X
- B. Standard ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X

These two connectivity options provide an ASX Net customer with the ability to choose the connectivity method that best meets its latency, redundancy and cost requirements.

ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X will be available by 1 Oct 2011.

Direct ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X

The Direct Connectivity service provides the premium, lowest latency, application agnostic ASX Net connection to Chi-X. The service comprises an additional direct, managed fibre connection from customer ASX Net site to Chi-X collocation.

This ASX Net service can be partnered with the standard ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X service to provide a cost effective redundancy solution.

The Direct Connectivity service to Chi-X is available at a total incremental cost of $2,150 per month for existing Sydney based ASX Net customers. This includes service and network costs.

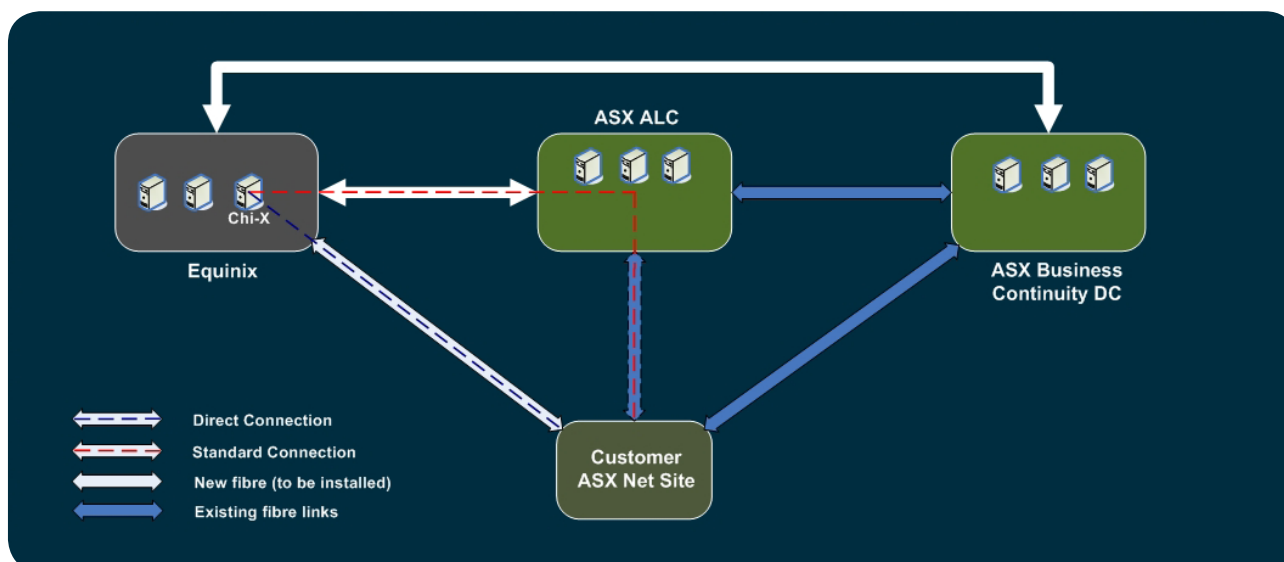

New ASX Net customers or those located outside Sydney should contact their ASX Account Manager for further information.

Standard ASX Net connectivity to Chi-X

The Standard Connectivity service provides a fast, cost-effective and application agnostic connection to Chi-X utilising existing infrastructure.

This ASX Net service is available for a total incremental cost of $1,000 per month for existing Sydney based ASX Net customers.

New ASX Net customers or those located outside Sydney should contact their ASX Account Manager for further information.
