The Sydney Futures Exchange Information Network Goes Live on 9 March

Members are advised that the Sydney Futures Exchange Information Network (SFEIN) will go live on Monday 9 March for the Sydney Market. New Zealand Market will go live on 23 March. This system will replace the existing manual processes for raising EFP's and lodging Day 2 Corrections of Allocation or Assignment errors therefore all users of these processes must ensure they are prepared for live date.

Timetable

Prior to live date you will be delivered user guides and envelopes containing passwords for each individual user within your firm. Please study the user guide and place your password in a safe place - it is the Members responsibility to protect passwords.

Fallback

Details of fallback procedures will be contained in the user guide. In the event of a system failure that is unlikely to be rectified in a reasonable time period, lodging of EFP's and Day 2's will revert back to the existing manual process. Please ensure you maintain a supply of current forms for both EFP's and Day 2's for this purpose.

Support
