SFE SPI 200™ INDEX FUTURES EXPIRY – SUNCORP CORPORATE ACTION

Participants are reminded that any component stock of the ASX/S&P 200™ could go into trading halt close to or on the futures expiry day. If this were to occur that stock's contribution to the SFE SPI 200™ Index Futures contract's settlement price will be determined based on the first traded price of that stock during the SFE SPI 200™ Index Futures contract's Last Trading Day (including in the Closing Single Price Auction). If the stock does not trade at all on the day in question, the last traded price of the stock is used to determine its contribution to the settlement price.

It has come to the attention of Futures Compliance & Surveillance that current capital-raising plans call for Suncorp-Metway Ltd to be placed in Trading Halt from the close of trading on Friday, 9 March to the start of trading on Friday, 16 March 2007. It is noted that 15 March is the Last Trading Day of a SFE SPI 200™ Index Futures contract.

Participants are advised, and the Exchange recommends that Participants pass this information on to their clients, that should Suncorp-Metway Ltd follow its plans as announced its stock will not be available for trade between 12 and 15 March and, as such, the price used for this equity when calculating the SFE SPI 200™ Index Futures contract's settlement price will be its last traded price – i.e. the closing price of Friday, 9 March.

Suncorp-Metway Ltd currently comprises 1.033% of the weighting of the S&P/ASX 200™ index.
