

SFE NOTICE NO.

53/07

Date of Issue: 4th May 2007

Effective Date: 4th May 2007

SYCOM London Interface Update

Further to SFE Notice 52/07, ASX Limited performed a reboot of the London hub this morning 4th May 2007.

ASX Limited can confirm that the trigger event that gave rise to the previous issue has not occurred today.

Participants are therefore advised that there is no longer a need to perform the planned application restart this afternoon of all London interfaces after the Market close.

No further action is required by Participants connecting via London.

Should you have any queries, please contact the ASX Service Desk on +612 9256 0677 or service.desk@asx.com.au
