Austraclear System Update

SWIFT - MT Standards Release 2008

Austraclear Limited advises that there will be no change made to the message formats of the SWIFT messages supported by the ASX EXIGO system as a result of the SWIFT MT Standards Release 2008.

ASX EXIGO SWIFT Message Protocols v1.8 (2007) is still valid and is available from:

http://www.asx.com.au/professionals/pdf/austraclear/business/swift_messaging.pdf

SWIFT - General Testing

The EXIGO TA Environment is available to Austraclear Participants to allow controlled testing of SWIFT.

ASX asks Participants who wish to perform SWIFT testing to contact the Austraclear Service desk in the first instance to arrange the relevant testing.

Following advice from Participants on the message types and transactions to be tested, Austraclear Service desk staff will confirm available times for support and matching of test messages.

Contacts

Austraclear participants are reminded that production support queries should be raised initially with the Austraclear Service Desk on 1300 362 257 or Exigo@asx.com.au.
