ASX RELEASE

LIVER SPECIALIST SERVICE AGREEMENT WITH PANASIA SURGERY PTE LTD OF SINGAPORE

Asian Centre for Liver Diseases and Transplantation Limited ("ACLDT"; ASX: AJJ) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a service agreement with Panasia Surgery Pte. Ltd. ("Panasia") which operates out of the Mount Elizabeth Medical Centre in Singapore.

Commencing July 2010, ACLDT will provide consultant surgeon or surgeons with the expertise in Liver Surgery and General surgery for the operations of Panasia in Singapore. Such arrangement is likely to increase the number of patients and patient referrals for ACLDT over a medium-term period.

The agreement is perpetual until termination by either party with at least one month's notice.

ACLDT does not expect this agreement to have a material impact on the current year financial results ending and financial position as at 31 August 2010.

About Asian Centre for Liver Diseases and Transplantation

Asian Centre for Liver Diseases & Transplantation Ltd (ASX:AJJ), founded in 1994, started trading on the Australian Securities Exchange in September 2009. The company's centre at Gleneagles Hospital, Singapore, is the largest private liver transplant and liver disease treatment facility in Asia, treating people from throughout the world. AJJ is progressing plans to establish centers in Vietnam, Malaysia and China to meet the growing demand in emerging markets.

The incidence of liver cancer has doubled in the past two decades and continues to increase due to hepatitis B and hepatitis C, alcoholism and fatty liver disease. AJJ has specialist skill in liver transplants from live donors, such as relatives, as the liver is the only human organ that can regenerate.
