Navitas renews UMass Boston agreement

Global education services provider Navitas Limited (ASX: NVT) is pleased to announce that its agreement with the University of Massachusetts Boston (UMass Boston) for its University pathway program has been renewed for 10 years.

The agreement has been renewed under materially similar terms and conditions but with a term of 10 years (compared to the previous term of five years).

Renewals for agreements with the University of Massachusetts Lowell (UMass Lowell) and the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth (UMass Dartmouth) for pathway colleges on their campuses are currently being negotiated and are expected to be finalised shortly.

The partnership with UMass Boston was established in 2010 providing many benefits for the students, the University and Navitas.

"We are very pleased to extend our very strong and successful relationship with UMass Boston," said Navitas Group Chief Executive Officer, Rod Jones.

"UMass Boston has a rich history and is an innovative and enterprising educational institution which we are proud to partner with," he said.

UMass Boston Provost, Winston Langley said, "The University of Massachusetts Boston is also pleased with the renewal of the partnership agreement with Navitas and we see it driving the next stage of the internationalization of the University."
