ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

4 August 2015

CONCO Cooperation with SYLLABLE

The Board of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited (“CIMC”, ASX: CIK) is pleased to announce today that its wholly owned subsidiary company, Conco International Co., Limited (“CICL”), has signed a Shareholder Agreement with Kaijuyuan Technology Co., Limited (“Syllable China”), a company incorporated in China, to establish a joint venture company to distribute and market branded “Syllable” headsets globally except in the countries China, India and Pakistan. Syllable China owns and distributes high quality headsets under the brand “Syllable” in China.

Pursuant to the shareholder agreement, each party will own 50% of the joint venture company. CICL and Syllable China shall have the right to appoint two (2) and one (1) directors respectively, to the board of the joint venture company.

CIMC believes that the establishment of the joint venture has the potential to increase our product range and establish new distribution channels for our audio division.

Order Received for Audio Earphone

In addition, CIMC also announces that a subsidiary of CIMC has received an order for audio earphones from Syllable China to the value of RMB2,490,000 (approximately AUD548,000).

On behalf of the Board,
