AHG TO OPEN NEW NISSAN DEALERSHIP IN BRISBANE

Automotive Holdings Group Limited (ASX: AHG) is pleased to announce that it has been granted a franchise to establish a new Nissan dealership in the Brisbane suburb of Aspley.

AHG managing director Bronte Howson said the new Nissan dealership would be developed as part of the Group's existing Aspley dealerships.

"It completes a local hub and strengthens the retail automotive precinct in Aspley where AHG also offers the Holden, HSV, Hyundai, Mitsubishi, Suzuki, Chrysler, Jeep, Dodge, Alfa Romeo and Fiat brands."

The new Aspley Nissan dealership takes AHG's market presence to 176 franchises at 101 dealership locations across Australia and New Zealand.

"This is our second Nissan dealership in Brisbane and further strengthens the Group's portfolio of brands in Queensland," said Mr Howson.

AHG also operates Nissan dealerships in Perth, Sydney, Melbourne, the Hunter Valley and Auckland.

"Our recent acquisitions and the new Nissan franchise continue the Group's strategy of establishing or acquiring automotive dealerships in operationally efficient retail hubs," said Mr Howson.

The new Aspley Nissan dealership will begin trading from temporary premises while a new dealership is constructed.
