APPEAL AGAINST THE VERDICT UNDER THE MINING MANAGEMENT ACT (NT)

Krucible Metals Limited (Krucible) (Company) (ASX: KRB) refers to the announcement made on 25 August 2015 wherein it was reported that The Court of Summary Jurisdiction in the Northern Territory had found the Company guilty with regard to drilling at the Company's Tobermorey Project (EL 28710) and was ordered to pay a fine of $300,000.

This verdict was with regard to the Summons from the Department of Mines and Energy (Department) under the Mining Management Act (NT).

The contravention noted in the Summons was as follows:

"Being an operator for a mining site carried out mining activities on that site without authorisation, contrary to section 35 (4) of the Mining Management Act (NT)"

The Company has decided to appeal this decision and will continue to keep the market updated.

For, and on behalf of the Board of the Company,

Josh Puckridge
