“Thomas & Friends™: Race On!” mobile game

All aboard official app for the iconic children’s character

Hong Kong – 18 December 2015: Animoca Brands (ASX: AB1) and Mattel Inc. (Nasdaq: MAT) announce the launch of Thomas & Friends™: Race On!, the new children’s mobile game featuring Thomas the Tank Engine™ and other characters from Thomas & Friends™, the globally popular preschool franchise that celebrated its 70th anniversary this year.

Thomas & Friends: Race On! is now available for iPhone®, iPad® and iPod touch® on the App Store<sup>SM</sup>, and for Android™ devices on Google Play™. The app is free to download and play, with optional unlockable content available for purchase.

Thomas & Friends: Race On! is suitable for all ages, and allows children to play as Thomas, the iconic number 1 blue engine, or as various of his engine friends. The game will delight children as they see the bright and cheerful train engines racing each other on the long railways of the island of Sodor. Kids join the fun by setting up the races, choosing and customising the locomotives, and tapping the screen to make the engines race faster.

The game can also be played with a friend on the same device by using the side-by-side 2-player mode to help encourage interaction with other children.

Thomas & Friends: Race On! is the second product resulting from the relationship between Animoca Brands and Mattel; the first game produced in this partnership was Ever After High™ Tea Party Dash, launched in October 2015.
