Boss Resources Limited (ASX: BOE) (“Boss” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the appointment of experienced uranium executive, Mr Mark Hohnen, as Chairman of the Board.

Mr Hohnen has been involved in the mineral business since the late 1970s and has had extensive international business experience in a wide range of industries including mining and exploration, property, investment, software and agriculture. He is an experienced director having held a number of directorships in both public and private companies.

Currently Mr. Hohnen is a Board member of Swakop Uranium, the owner of the Husab uranium project. Husab is the world's second largest uranium operation in terms of production with construction of a 15 mlbs uranium per annum mine and treatment plant nearing completion.

Mr. Hohnen was founding Executive Chairman of Kalahari Resources Plc, a company founded in 2005 to explore for uranium and base metals in Namibia. Kalahari (KAH) was listed on AIM in March 2006 with a market capitalisation of Stg£15 million. In 2011, Kalahari Resources Plc was valued at Stg£750 million and was ultimately the subject of a corporate transaction in 2012 valued at $US2.2 billion.
