FLEXIROAM X GAINS TRACTION WITH SINGAPORE AIRLINES STAFF UNION

Flexiroam Limited's (ASX: FRX) wholly owned subsidiary Flexiroam Asia Limited ("Flexiroam") has seen significant traction in its partnership with Singapore Airlines Staff Union ("SIASU").

On 2nd November 2016, Flexiroam announced that it had signed a partnership agreement with SIASU. Through the agreement, Flexiroam and SIASU agreed to co-market and coordinate sales of Flexiroam services to 10,600 SIASU members for a period of 2 years.

Within a short period of time, Flexiroam is pleased to announce positive results, with more than 1,550 members (around 15%) having already converted to paying customers, generating revenue of A$59,090 (an ARPU (Average revenue per user) of A$37.90). Flexiroam's brand association with TripAdvisor and PATA had given the crew members amongst SIASU's members confidence in adopting Flexiroam X.

Flexiroam expects a significant flow-on effect from the SIASU response, with every paying customer expected to refer at least one new subscriber to join Flexiroam X. The Company is currently in discussions with other airline unions to forge similar partnerships.
