TikForce Partners with Global Recruitment Technology Provider First Choice Software

Highlights

- TikForce partners with UK headquartered First Choice Software.
- TikForce platform made available to First Choice's large network of Recruitment firms globally via the RDB ProNet ecosystem.
- The TikForce platform will provide RDB ProNet clients with a low cost, rapid and secure onboarding and verification process.

TikForce Ltd (ASX: TKF, the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has partnered with UK Headquartered, global recruitment technology provider, First Choice Software, part of the Access Group. Locally positioned with offices in both Singapore and Brisbane, First Choice are now ideally placed to serve the APAC region. The TikForce system will be integrated into the "RDB ProNet" recruitment software marketplace extending a low cost verification and compliance solution to clients, globally, using the RDB platform.

The TikForce platform automates the validation of individual credentials and will be instrumental in providing a rapid and secure collation and process to meet legislative compliance, along with due diligence expected of the global recruitment industry and their client base.

The TikForce Platform is being integrated into the RDB ProNet marketplace where it captures and verifies the full competency of a worker to fulfil a position, faster and more efficiently. Tikforce ensures compliance, whilst removing the administration burden for recruiters.

Brian Hill, Director of First Choice Software's APAC division commented: "As part of the recent expansion of our RDB ProNet product offering into APAC, a partnership has been formed with TikForce. After a review of the platform it became clear that their low cost and innovative model would prove invaluable to both our local and international recruitment clients. At the heart of the First Choice Software and parent company ethos, is to be a first-to-market provider of world class technology solutions, be it enterprise, or in the case of Tikforce, a highly scalable and disruptive startup technology. We look forward to forging this partnership in the Asia Pacific region and introducing the platform to our established UK market partners and clients.”

TikForce’s chief executive officer, Kevin Baum, said: “we are thrilled to have entered a partnership with First Choice Software PTE Ltd and The Access Group. This is a forward looking, global technology powerhouse which shares the same philosophy on delivering certainty in the digital realm, particularly in the HR and recruitment industry. It will be a pleasure to work together toward expanding a presence in the APAC region, and to be introduced to their extensive client base in the UK”
