Sydney, Australia – 31st January 2017: Software technology group 8common Limited (ASX: 8CO), today announced the Federal Treasury is now live with Expense8 travel and expense management enterprise software as a service (SaaS) solution. This integrated SaaS solution will enable Federal Treasury to greatly improve its corporate travel planning process and drive process efficiencies with expense reconciliation going forward.

Nic Lim, Executive Chairman of 8common Limited, said "This key milestone kicks off 8common's next phase in Expense8's product roadmap with our integrated travel and expense management SaaS solution. We continue to focus on solving our customers' spend reconciliation needs with travel being a key category of employee spend."

The Department of the Prime Minister & Cabinet has also gone live with Expense8 in record time and we are now planning the expense8 travel module. Again, this milestone represents a key step toward their new travel and expense management operating model.
