The Company was pleased with growth in January. The headline growth number for the month was understated in month-on-month (MoM) terms due to the lower number of paydays in the period (compared to December 2016). Normalising the deposit volume to account for this saw growth for January at approximately 25% MoM consistent with average monthly growth rates in the first 6 months since IPO.

February has seen explosive escalation in deposits onto the platform with an 86% increase MoM, making this the highest growth rate since the Company launched the platform. This growth is fueled by the start of the US tax refund season which runs February to May, resulting in an increase in direct deposits, cash deposits and cheque deposits.

Growth in Total Transaction Volume (TTV)

Total Transaction Volume grew by 69% January to February (month to date) to US$8.33 million (A$10.82 million¹), which boosted the annualised run rate of ChimpChange's TTV to approximately US$100 million (A$129 million¹).

Monthly TTV (as at 25 Feb 2017)

Customer Card Purchases

Given the large volume of tax refunds deposited onto the platform occurred in late February, we expect to see related card activity such as purchases and ATM withdrawals increase in March 2017. Card purchases grew by 40% MoM between January to February (month to date) to US$2.48 million (A$3.21 million¹).

Growth in Customer Numbers

The Company added more than 12,000 customers since 1 January 2017. Over 25% of the new acquisitions were organic (up from 20% in December) allowing the company to deliver lower acquisition costs and grow efficiently.

The Company continues to remain confident on the ChimpChange platform's near-term scalability prospects, and looks forward to providing its next operational update with its March quarterly.

All financial figures in this release are denominated in U.S. dollars, unless stated otherwise.
