FLEXIROAM PARTNERS WITH GO-JEK, INDONESIAN LEADING ON-DEMAND MOBILE PLATFORM

Flexiroam Limited (ASX:FRX) is pleased to announce that its wholly-owned subsidiary Flexiroam Asia Limited ("Flexiroam") has signed a partnership agreement with GO-JEK, a leading on-demand mobile platform in Indonesia.

Flexiroam and GO-JEK are collaborating in a promotion through GO-POINTS – GO-JEK's customer loyalty program where customers can exchange their points for Flexiroam vouchers to redeem data via the Flexiroam X app.

Michael Perera, Product Owner of GO-POINTS, said that, "By partnering with Flexiroam, we are able to offer our customers a beneficial reward that would help them when travelling overseas. This is in line with our goals when developing GO-POINTS, which is to increase customer satisfaction in using our GO-JEK app and our e-wallet, GO-PAY."

Jef Ong, Flexiroam's Managing Director, adds "The entry into the Indonesian market with GO-JEK solidifies our footprint in ASEAN. I am excited because GO-JEK is the first unicorn start-up in Indonesia and is highly respected. We are honoured to have them as our partner. Forging partnerships with tech disruptors in this region is in line with our aspiration to be the largest roaming provider in Asia by 2020. We are now one step closer."

In addition, as part of the collaboration, GO-JEK will run promotional campaigns featuring Flexiroam across 5 channels of communication; Facebook, Twitter, Line, GO-JEK newsletters and Instagram. Flexiroam will also be promoting the cooperation with GO-JEK via Flexiroam's social media platforms.
