

TikForce Commences Commercial Volumes for the Job Seekers Sector

- TikForce commences delivering verified profiles of 2500 new individuals in the April Quarter
- Generating approximately $500,000 in revenue
- 80% of purchases settled with-in 24 hours
- Additional major projects expected to start in April quarter

TikForce, (ASX TKF), (The Company) is pleased to announce large scale onboarding has commenced in the job seeker market. Initially 2500 new individuals are expected to, have their credentials uploaded and verified and supplied with an online profile and supporting documents.

It is expected, barring unforeseen delays, that we will be able to complete the initial 2500 validated profiles in the April quarter.

At just over $200 per transaction, the 2500 onboards will generate approximately $500,000 in the April quarter.

The feedback from the trial phase from both the employee and organizational was very positive;

- With rapid processing time;
- Visibility and comprehensive real time reporting.

That has led to this initial commercial rollout.

A short-term opportunity exist to expand to a further 7500 verified profiles with the same client.

TikForce CEO Kevin Baum commented, "Beyond the income generated it is fantastic to have the tangible support to what the company is doing. Workforce compliance is important and TikForce is making it easier, cheaper, and more valuable."

It is expected that significant additional will commence in the April quarter, from both existing clients and new starts.
