¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found.

The Company has adopted and substantially complies with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Third Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Group's operations.

The Company has prepared this statement which sets out its corporate governance practices that were in operation throughout the financial year ended 31 December 2017, identifies any Recommendations that have not been followed, and provides reasons for not following such Recommendations.

The Company's corporate governance policies and charters and policies are all available on the Company's website (www.fatfish.co/investor-relations) (Website).

Compliance with ASX Corporate Governance Council Good Practice Recommendations

The table below outlines each of the ASX Best Practice Recommendations and the Company's compliance with those recommendations. The Company has adopted and substantially complies with ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Third Edition) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Group's operations.

Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management	and oversight
Recommendation 1.1
A listed entity should disclose:
(a) The respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and	Yes	The Board has adopted a charter which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The primary role of the Board is for the protection and enhancement of long term shareholder value. Its responsibilities include the overall strategic direction of the Group, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. The functions and responsibilities of the Board and management are consistent with ASX Principle 1. A copy of the Board Charter is posted on the website.
(b) Those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.		Each Director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties. The Group has in place systems designed to fairly review and actively encourage enhanced Board and management effectiveness.

Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management a	nd oversight
Recommendation 1.2
A listed entity should: (a) Undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election as a director; and (b) Provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director		Presently, the Company has in place a Nomination Committee. It is the role of the Nomination Committee to identify suitable candidates to complement the existing Board, to undertake appropriate checks on the candidate to seek confirmation from the candidate that he/she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a director. Where appropriate, external consultants may be engaged to assist in search for candidates and undertaking relevant checks.
	Yes	The Company provides information to shareholders about Directors seeking re-election at general meeting to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to re elect the Director, including their relevant qualifications and experience and the skills they bring to the Board; details or any other listed directorships held by the Director in the preceding 3 years; the term of office already served by the Director; whether the Director is considered to be independent; and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the re-election of the Director.
		The Company will, in the case of a candidate standing for election as a director for the first time, provide information shareholders about the candidate to enable them to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect the candidate, including material adverse information revealed by any checks the Board has performed on the candidate; details of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonable be perceived to influence, in a material respect the candidate's capacity to exercise independent judgement on board matters or to ac in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally; the Board's view on whether the candidate will be considered to be an independent Director and a recommendation by the Board in respect of the election of the candidate.
Recommendation1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment	Yes	Each director is given a letter upon his or her appointment which outlines the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives including the CEO, have a formal job description and services agreement describing their term of office, duties, rights, and responsibilities and entitlements. The Company will disclose the material terms of any employment service or consultancy agreement it enters into with its CEO (or equivalent).
Recommendation 1.4 The Company Secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary is responsible for co-ordination of all Board business, including agendas, board papers, minutes, communication with regulatory bodies, ASX and statutory and other filings. The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, and all Directors have access to the Company Secretary. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is to be made or approved by he

Board.

	Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
MIUO BSM IB	Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) Have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) Disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) Disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either; 1. The respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or 2. If the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act	Yes	The Board has contemplated the necessity of implementing a diversity policy. Noting the relatively small size of the Company and the fact that the Company has only a small number of employees, the Board has resolved to depart from the recommendations by not implementing a gender diversity. Whilst the Company has not set formal measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, at such time that the Company seeks to establish and expand its workforce, the Company will be committed to the principles of employing people with a broad range of experiences, skills and views.
	Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) Disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation as undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes	The Company's Corporate Governance Plan requires the Board to disclose to whether or not performance evaluations were conducted during the relevant reporting period Senior executives supply the Board with information in a form and timeframe, and of a quality that enables the Board to discharge its duties effectively. Directors are entitled to request additional information whether they consider such information necessary to make informed decisions.
	Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) Disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation as undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes	The Board, together with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, evaluates the performance of the Group's senior executives periodically. The Board also reviews the Chief Executive Officer's performance annually. A performance evaluation for the Group's senior executives and the Chief Executive Officer has taken place in the reporting period.

Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
Principle 2: Structure the Board to add value
Recommendation 2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) Have a nomination committee which: 1. Has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and 2. Is chaired by an independent directors, and disclose: (i) The charter of the committee (ii) The members of the committee; and (iii) As at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) If it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Yes	The Board has established a formal nomination committee Where necessary, the Nomination Committee seeks advice on external advisers in connection with the suitability of applicants for Board membership.
Recommendation 2.2 A listed entity should and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership	Yes	Whilst the Company does not currently disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills of the Directors, the following information is set out in the Company's Annual Report. - The skills, experience and expertise relevar to the position of director held by each director in office at the date of the annual report; and - A statement as to the mix of skills and diversity for which the board of directors is looking to achieve in membership of the Board.
Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) The names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) If a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) The length of service of each director	Yes	During the year, the Board comprised of four Directors, Dato' Larry Nyap Liou Gan (Non Executive Chairman), Kin Wai Lau (CEO/Executive Director), Donald Han Low (Non Executive Director) and Jeffrey Hua Yuen Tan (Non Executive Director). The Board has considered that circumstances of each Director and determined that Directors' Dato' Larry Nyap Liou Gan, Donald Han Low and Jeffrey Hua Yuen Yan wer independent as described in Box 2.3 of the Recommendations. The Corporations Act 2001, the Company's Constitution are the Board meeting process requires Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Group, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual position. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out in the Company's Annual Report.

	Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
	Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Yes	During the year, the Board comprised of four Directors, Dato' Larry Nyap Liou Gan, Kin Wai Lau, Donald Han Low and Jeffrey Hua Yuan Tan. Of the four directors, the Board considers that only Kin Wai Lau is a non independent director.
	Recommendation 2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity	Yes	Dato' Larry Nyap Liou Gan has been the Chairman of the Company since 2014, and was at the date of his appointment and continues to be independent.
