

ASX RELEASE

GetSwift Limited (ASX:GSW)

23 May 2018

Update on Class Action Proceedings

As advised to the ASX on 18 April 2018, in respect of the three class action proceedings filed against GetSwift Limited (Company) in the Federal Court of Australia, the Court has held hearings to consider which of the competing class actions filed by the plaintiff law firms should proceed.

The Company advises that the Federal Court of Australia delivered its judgment today, where the Court permanently stayed the Perera and McTaggart Proceedings, in favour of the Webb Proceedings, brought by law firm Phi Finney McDonald. The Webb Applicants will now be ordered to file a Statement of Claim, to which the Company will respond.

The Company understands and expects that the forthcoming Statement of Claim will be to the same effect as those filed in the Perrera and McTaggart Proceedings.

The Webb Applicants have not disclosed an alleged quantum of loss. The Company notes that the lawyers for the Perera Proceeding and the lawyers for the McTaggart Proceeding disclosed in open court that the alleged total quantum of their claims was approximately $75 - 100 million, and $120 - $140 million (respectively), a reduction of between 50 to 75% on the previously reported claim size.

The Company strongly disputes the allegations made, including any alleged loss, and will vigorously defend the proceedings. The Company will continue to keep shareholders informed of developments.
