ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

Class Action commenced against Davantage Group Pty Ltd

McMillan Shakespeare Limited (ASX:MMS) has been served with a class action proceeding filed in the Federal Court of Australia.

The claim relates to a warranty product business operated by Davantage Group Pty Ltd (trading as “National Warranty Company”(NWC)).

The claim is made on behalf of all persons who entered an NWC warranty between 1 July 2013 and 28 May 2015 (provided it was acquired for domestic/personal use and they received an NWC PDS). In the proceedings, the Applicant and group members seek orders the NWC warranties are void, and seek either restitution or a refund of the premium paid and interest on that amount.

Davantage Group Pty Ltd was registered as a company and acquired the warranty product business trading as “National Warranty Company” in 2013. Davantage Group Pty Ltd is a subsidiary of Presidian Holdings Pty Ltd.

Presidian Holdings Pty Ltd was acquired by the MMS Group in February 2015.

A significant portion of the relevant period to which the claim relates is in respect of a time when the business trading as “National Warranty Company” was not owned by the MMS Group.

Davantage Group Pty Ltd intends to vigorously defend the proceedings.
