

DELISTING AND BUY BACK – FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Delisting
1.	What is Delisting?	Delisting is the process by which Updater Inc's (Updater or the Company) CDIs will be removed from the official list of ASX (Delisting). This means that if you hold CDIs in Updater after its delisting you will no longer be able to trade them on ASX.
2.	Will this affect Updater's shares of common stock?	No. Updater's shares of common stock (Shares) will continue to exist in their current form.
3.	Why is Updater delisting from the ASX?	Updater's market position has resulted in significant interest from major international (non-Australian) financial investors and strategic parties that have expressed strong interest in purchasing stock directly from Updater as a private company not listed on ASX. Therefore, delisting is a logical next step towards achieving the Company's vision. It is the Board's view that it is in the best interests of all Updater Security holders that the Company delist from the ASX at this time and begin the path towards the US financial markets. Further details of the reasons for the Delisting and plans for the Company following Delisting, are set out in the accompanying Buy-Back Booklet and in the Notice of Meeting and Proxy Statement that was released on the ASX announcement platform on 21 August 2018.
4.	Is Delisting subject to Shareholder approval	The Delisting is subject to Shareholder approval. Accordingly, the Board has determined to request Shareholder approval for the Delisting and the associated Buy-Back at a special meeting of the Company to be held on 8:00pm on 6 September 2018 (UESDT) / 10:00am on 7 September 2018.
5.	What happens if Shareholder approval of the Delisting is not obtained?	The resolutions for approval of the Delisting and the Buy-Back are inter-conditional. This means that if either the resolution for approval of the Delisting or the Buy-Back are not approved by Shareholders, neither the Delisting or the Buy-Back will proceed and unless a subsequent proposed delisting is approved by Shareholders or ASX determines that the Company's Securities should no longer be listed, the Company will continue to be listed on the ASX and you will be able to trade your CDIs as previously.
6.	How long can I still trade my CDIs?	You may trade your CDIs on ASX until trading is suspended which, provided Shareholder approval of both the Delisting and Buy-Back are obtained, is expected to be at the close of trading on 8 October 2018.
7.	When will Updater be delisted?	Updater will be officially delisted from ASX on 10 October 2018 provided Shareholder approval of both the Delisting and the Buy-Back are obtained but the last day for trading CDIs on ASX will be 8 October 2018.
8.	Will Updater's Shares continue to trade after Delisting from	No. After Delisting, all remaining CDIs will be compulsorily converted to Shares on 23 October 2018 and Shares will only be capable of sale by private off-market transaction with a willing third

Buy-Back

9.	What is the Buy-Back?	In proposing the Delisting, the Board recognises that it would be preferable to provide an opportunity for Security holders to sell some of their investment (or for Security holders holding smaller parcels, all of their investment) prior to the Delisting. Accordingly, the Company is offering to buy-back 10,000 CDIs (400 Shares) per Eligible Security holder at the Buy-Back Price, up to an aggregate cap of A$10,000,000 worth of Securities in conjunction with the Delisting. Further details of the Buy-Back including how to accept the offer to buy-back Securities are set out in the accompanying Buy-Back Booklet.
-----------	------------------------------	--

10.	What is the Buy-Back Price?	The Buy-Back Price will be the higher of (a) A$1.25 per CDI (equivalent to approximately A$31.25 per Share), equal to the highest price at which Updater has raised capital on the ASX or (b) the 20-day volume weighted average price of the CDIs on the date of Delisting. A$1.25 represents a 6% premium to the 20-day volume weighted average CDI price on ASX prior to the Announcement Date (being the date that the Delisting and Buy-Back were announced on 15 August 2018).

11.	Is the Buy-Back subject to Shareholder approval	The Buy-Back is subject to Shareholder approval. The Board has determined to request Shareholder approval for the Delisting and the Buy-Back at a special meeting of the Company to be held on 8:00pm on 6 September 2018 (UESDT) / 10:00am on 7 September 2018.

12.	What happens if Shareholder approval of the Buy-Back is not obtained?	The resolutions for approval of the Delisting and the Buy-Back are inter-conditional. This means that if either the resolution for approval of the Delisting or the Buy-Back are not approved by Shareholders, neither the Delisting or the Buy-Back will proceed and unless a subsequent proposed delisting is approved by Shareholders or ASX determines that the Company's Securities should no longer be listed, the Company will continue to be listed on the ASX and you will be able to trade your CDIs as previously.
------------	--	--

13.	Is anyone excluded from participating in the Buy-Back	Yes. Excluded Security holders are not able to participate in the Buy-Back. Excluded Security holders are Security holders whom the Company is aware reside in the United States or in a foreign jurisdiction where it would be either illegal under the laws of that jurisdiction or in the Company's opinion excessively onerous, costly and/or time consuming, to permit Security holders residing in that jurisdiction to participate in the Buy-Back. Further details on Excluded Security holders is set out in section 5.1 of the Buy-Back Booklet.

Tax implications of the Delisting and Buy-Back

22.

What are the tax implications of the Delisting and Buy-Back?

Australian tax implications

In the event you retain some or all of your Securities which are compulsorily acquired as part of the Delisting, the conversion of your CDIs into Shares will not give rise to a capital gains tax event (CGT event).

In the event you sell Securities to the Company under the Buy-Back, this may give rise to a CGT event, potentially resulting in a capital gain or a capital loss.

US tax implications

(a) US holders: Conversion of CDIs

In the event a U.S. holder retains some or all of its Securities which are compulsorily converted as part of the Delisting, the conversion of the U.S. holder's CDIs into Shares should not give rise to U.S. federal income taxation, except possibly in the event that cash is paid in exchange for their entitlement to fractional Shares. U.S. holder is defined for this purposes pursuant to U.S. federal income tax laws.

(b) Non-US holders

In the event a non-U.S. holder sells Securities to the Company under the Buy-Back, the Company (or any financial intermediary required by law to withhold U.S. tax) may withhold an amount of U.S. federal income tax equal to 30% of the gross payments payable to a non-U.S. holder (defined, for this purpose, pursuant to U.S. federal income tax laws) or its agent in connection with the Buy-Back unless the Company (or such intermediary) determines that a reduced rate of withholding is available pursuant to a tax treaty or that an exemption from withholding is applicable.

In the event a non-U.S. holder retains some or all of its Securities which are compulsorily converted as part of the Delisting, the conversion of a non-U.S. holder's CDIs into Shares should not give rise to U.S. federal income taxation, except possibly in the event that cash is paid in exchange for their entitlement to fractional Shares.

Each non-U.S. holder must deliver to the Company before the payment a properly completed and executed appropriate IRS Form W-8.

Security holders should obtain their own independent professional advice on the tax implications of the conversion and subsequent sale of Shares based on their specific circumstances.

Further information on any tax implications of the Delisting and Buy-Back are set out in section 4 of the Buy-Back Booklet enclosed with this document.
