1 Details of the Entitlement Offer

1.1 The Entitlement Offer

Eligible Shareholders are invited to participate in a pro-rata non-renounceable Entitlement Offer of up to 17,127,164 New Shares. The Entitlement Offer will be conducted on the basis of 1 New Share for every 5 Shares held at 7:00pm (Sydney time) on the Record Date, at an issue price of A$0.06 per New Share, payable in full on application.

Fractional Entitlements to New Shares will be rounded down to the nearest whole New Share.

Your Entitlement to subscribe for New Shares is shown on your personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form which accompanies this Offer Document.

The Entitlement Offer is non-renounceable, which means that if you do not accept all or part of your Entitlements, you will not be able to trade your Entitlements and they will lapse.

New Shares will rank equally in all respects with existing Shares.

The Entitlement Offer is being undertaken by the Company under section 708AA of the Corporations Act without a prospectus.

1.2 Issue Price

The Issue Price is A$0.06 for each New Share and is payable in full upon Application.

The Issue Price represents a discount of 22.4% to the VWAP of Shares on the 10 trading days prior to announcement (being the last day Shares were traded on ASX before the Entitlement Offer was announced) of A$0.0773.

The highest and lowest market price of Shares on ASX during the 3 months prior to announcement is A$0.175 on 18 September 2018 and A$0.071 on 31 October 2018 respectively.

1.3 Purpose of the Entitlement Offer

The funds raised from the Entitlement Offer will primarily be used for working capital and to fund the ongoing development of the Company's processing business.

The Entitlement Offer is being extended to Eligible Shareholders only.

Eligible Shareholders are those holders of Shares who:

- are registered as a holder of Shares as at 5:00 pm (Sydney Time) on 17 January 2019 (the Record Date);
- have a registered address in Australia or New Zealand;
- are eligible under all applicable securities laws to receive an offer under the Entitlement Offer.

The Company reserves the right to reject any Application that it believes comes from a person who is not an Eligible Shareholder.

See section 4.1 for more details.

1.4 Minimum subscription

There is no minimum subscription under the Entitlement Offer.

1.5 Opening and Closing Date for applications

1.6 Applying for Additional Shares under the Shortfall Facility

Any New Shares not subscribed for by Eligible Shareholders pursuant to their Entitlements will become available as Shortfall under the Shortfall facility (Shortfall Facility).

Eligible Shareholders who subscribe for their entitlement in full may apply for additional New Shares (Additional Shares), regardless of the size of their present holding, by specifying the total amount of New Shares they wish to apply for (including the Additional Shares) on their Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

There is no guarantee regarding the number of Additional Shares (if any) that will be available to Eligible Shareholders under the Shortfall Facility. This will depend on the extent to which Shareholders take up their entitlement. If all Shareholders take up their entitlement then there will be no Additional Shares available under the Shortfall Facility.

In the event that demand for Additional Shares under the Shortfall Facility exceeds the number of Additional Shares that are available then there will be a scale back on a pro rata basis, subject to compliance with all applicable laws including ensuring no Shareholder becomes entitled to more than 19.99% of total Shares on issue as a result of the allocation of Additional Shares.

It is an express term of the Entitlement Offer that Applicants for Additional Shares will be bound to accept a lesser number of Additional Shares allocated to them than applied for. If you do not receive any or all of the Additional Shares you applied for, any excess Application Monies will be returned to you without interest.

Decisions regarding the operation of the Shortfall Facility will be made by the Board in its absolute discretion.

The Directors reserve the right, subject to the requirements of the Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, to place any Additional Shares under the Shortfall Facility at their discretion within three months after the Closing Date and further reserves the right to engage one or more brokers to act as lead manager(s) to the placement of Additional Shares. 3 Risk factors

Prior to deciding whether to apply for New Shares under the Entitlement Offer, Eligible Shareholders should read this Offer Document in its entirety and review all announcements made to the ASX in order to gain an understanding of the Company, its activities, operations, financial position and prospects. The risks included in this section are specific to the Company and its operations and are not exhaustive.

As the risks described in this section may impact upon the Company's future performance, the Company and its Directors have taken steps to safeguard the Company from, and to mitigate the Company's exposure, to these risks.

The risk factors listed below are not exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. Potential investors should also have regard to the Company's prior publications and announcements.

3.1 Risks associated with the Company

Shareholder approval of convertible note issue – As announced to ASX on 12 December 2018 the Company entered into a secured loan facility with Altor (Altor Loan). If Shareholders don't approve the issue of new convertible notes to Altor to repay the Altor Loan at the EGM, funds drawn under the Altor loan (currently totalling $500,000 however may be up to $2 million prior to the opening of the Entitlement Offer period) are due and payable within ten (10) business days from date of the EGM. If shareholders don't approve the issue of convertible notes, the financial risk of the Company will be significantly increased and there is a real risk that it will no longer be able to continue as a going concern. Information in relation to the convertible notes and EGM were despatched to shareholders on 14 January 2019. The EGM will be held on 12 February 2019.

Insurance - the Company has taken out insurance to cover its current business operations. However, the Company's insurance policies, in some circumstances may not provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered or fully covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Company.

Dependence on key personnel – the Company is reliant upon its key management personnel. The loss of the services of certain personnel could have an adverse effect on the Company, as it may not be able to recruit replacements for the key personnel within a short time frame.

Existing business risks - The Company's businesses and the processing business is an early stage venture, whose path to market is inherently risky. The Company cannot guarantee its future earnings, does not expect to declare any dividends in the foreseeable future, and cannot provide a guaranteed level of return to investors. The Company continues to be subject to the risks which have previously affected its business and the development of its technology and businesses.

3.2 General risks

The business activities of the Company are subject to various general economic and investment risks that may impact on the future performance of the Company. These risk factors include, but are not limited to those summarised below.

Taxation and government regulations - changes in taxation and government legislation in a range of areas (for example, the Corporations Act, accounting standards and taxation law) can have a significant influence on the outlook for companies and the returns to investors.

Investment in capital markets - as with all stock market investments, there are risks associated with an investment in the Company. Securities listed on the stock market, can experienced price and volume fluctuations that may be unrelated to the operating performances of such companies. These factors may materially affect the market price of Shares regardless of the Company's performance. The price of Shares might trade below or above the Offer Price for the New Shares.

Accounting standards - Australian accounting standards are set by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB). Changes to accounting standards issued by AASB could materially adversely affect the financial performance and position reported in the Company's financial statements.

General economic risks - the operating and financial performance of the Company is influenced by a variety of general economic and business conditions, including levels of consumer spending, oil prices, inflation, interest rates and exchange rates, supply and demand, industrial disruption, access to debt and capital markets and government fiscal, monetary and regulatory policies. Changes in general economic conditions may result from many factors including government policy, international economic conditions, significant acts of terrorism, hostilities or war or natural disasters.

3.3 Risks associated with the Entitlement Offer

There are certain risks associated with participating or not participating in the Entitlement Offer, including:

Entitlement Offer funding success - The proposed Entitlement Offer is not underwritten and so there is no assurance that the funds sought will be raised under the Entitlement Offer. If the Entitlement Offer does not proceed or raises less than expected, this may prejudice the capacity to develop and commercialise the Company's processing business, which may expedite the need for further capital raisings and / or undermine the Company's financial prospects.

Dilution - your Shareholding in the Company may be diluted as a result of not taking up your full Entitlements; and Alternative funding - if the Company is unable to successfully complete the Entitlement Offer, it will have to consider alternative funding options, which may or may not be available on acceptable terms or may result in dilution to Shareholders.

4.3 Effect of the Offer on the control of the Company

Any effect of the Entitlement Offer on the control of the Company will depend upon the extent to which Shareholders take up their Entitlements, and the extent to which Shares available under the Shortfall Facility (if any) is placed. The following information is provided to Shareholders:

- If all Shareholders as at the Record Date take up their full Entitlements under the offer, the Entitlement Offer will have no effect on the control of the Company.
- If some Shareholders do not take up their Entitlements (whether because they are Ineligible Shareholders or otherwise), their interest in the Company will be diluted. The interest of Shareholders who only take up part of their Entitlements will also be diluted, but to a lesser extent.
- If there is a Shortfall, Eligible Shareholders who subscribe for Additional Shares may increase their proportionate holding, but no Shareholder will, following the Entitlement Offer and allocation of any Additional Shares issued under the Shortfall Facility, obtain voting power in excess of 19.99%.

The effects of the Entitlement Offer on the Company's capital structure are shown below. The example below also includes the effect of the convertible note if approved by shareholders.
