Alliance extends Wet Lease Services Agreement with Virgin Australia Group

- Alliance extends wet lease services agreement with Virgin Australia Group
- Extension of agreement through until the end of 2021

Alliance Aviation Services Limited ("Alliance") is pleased to announce an extension and expansion of the wet lease services agreement with the Virgin Australia Group until the end of 2021. Under the existing agreement, Alliance has been operating services on behalf of Virgin Australia Group to a number of regional ports since 1 July 2017.

Under the new agreement, Alliance will also operate international services on behalf of the Virgin Australia Group.

Lee Schofield, Alliance's CEO, said that, "Alliance is delighted to extend our working relationship with the Virgin Australia Group until 2021. This extension includes increased contracted flying hours and Alliance is excited by the opportunity to commence operating international services on behalf of the Virgin Australia Group."

Mr Schofield, also said, "Since the signing of our long-term strategic partnership with the Virgin Australia Group in August 2016 both parties have benefitted through the provision of a range of services including contracted wet lease services."
