Title: Company Secretary

¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

PRINCIPLE and RECOMMENDATION	REQUIREMENT	COMPLY (Y / N)	EXPLANATION
PRINCIPLE 1	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	YES	The Company has adopted a Board Charter which sets out the specific roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management. The Board Charter includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. The Board Charter sets out the membership and operation of the Board, requirements as to Board composition, delegation and establishment of Board Committees, the process of selection and appointment of directors, the roles and responsibilities of the Chairman and Company Secretary, requirements for advising on conflicts of interest and details regarding the Board's interaction with the Company. A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's website.
Recommendation 1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	YES	(a) The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter requires the Nomination Committee to undertake appropriate checks before putting forward a candidate for appointment or election as a director. (b) The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter requires the Committee to provide shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.
Recommendation 1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	YES	The Company has written agreements with each of its Directors and senior executives setting out the terms of their appointment.
Recommendation 1.4	The Company Secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	YES	The Board Charter outlines the roles, responsibility and accountability of the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board through the Chairman on all matters relating to the proper functioning of the Board.

Recommendation 1.5	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (ii) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. 	NO	The workforce of the Company is made up of individuals with diverse skills, backgrounds, perspectives and experiences and this diversity is recognised, respected and valued by the Company. While the Company is committed to gender diversity in its workplace, the Board believes that the Company is not yet of a size where it is appropriate to implement a Diversity Policy or to implement measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity.
Recommendation 1.6	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. 	YES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter has and discloses the process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors. Performance reviews are carried out by the Remuneration and Nomination Committee. (b) The Company intends to disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.
Recommendation 1.7	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. 	YES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The Board Charter has and discloses the process for periodically evaluating the performance of senior executives. (b) The Company intends to disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.

PRINCIPLE 2	Structure the board to add value:
Recommendation 2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. 	NO	The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee has three members but does not have a majority of independent members, but rather only one independent member. While the Company is committed to maintaining independence on the Board and its committees, the Board believes that the Company is not yet at a size where it is appropriate for more than one independent director to be appointed to the Board. The Company publicly discloses the charter of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, the members of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee and, as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.
