EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Amendments to the Corporations Act have been made and apply to proxy voting on or after 1 August 2011 (whether or not the proxy was appointed before, on or after that date). Shareholders and their proxies should be aware of these changes to the Corporations Act as they will apply to this meeting. Broadly, the changes mean that:

- if proxy holders vote, they must cast all directed proxies as directed (this requirement has been strengthened); and
- any directed proxies which are not voted will automatically default to the chairperson of the meeting, who must vote the proxies as directed.

More details on these changes is provided below.

Proxy vote if appointed specifies way to vote:

The new section 250BB provides that an appointment of a proxy may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution and, if it does:

- the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- if the proxy has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- if the proxy is the chairperson of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- if the proxy is not the chairperson of the meeting – the proxy need not vote on the poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed)

The transfer of non-chair proxy to chair in certain circumstances:

The new section 250BC provides that, if

- an appointment of a proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution at a meeting of the company's members; and
- the appointed proxy is not the chairperson of the meeting; and
- at the meeting, a poll is duly demanded on the resolution; and

either of the following applies:

- the proxy is not recorded as attending the meeting; or
- the proxy does not vote on the resolution,

the chairperson of the meeting is taken, before voting on the resolution close, to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on the resolution at the meeting.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Amendments to the Corporations Act have been made and apply to proxy voting on or after 1 August 2011 (whether or not the proxy was appointed before, on or after that date). Shareholders and their proxies should be aware of these changes to the Corporations Act as they will apply to this meeting. Broadly, the changes mean that:

- if proxy holders vote, they must cast all directed proxies as directed (this requirement has been strengthened); and
- any directed proxies which are not voted will automatically default to the chairperson of the meeting, who must vote the proxies as directed.

More details on these changes is provided below.

Proxy vote if appointed specifies way to vote:

The new section 250BB provides that an appointment of a proxy may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution and, if it does:

- the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
- if the proxy has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution – the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- if the proxy is the chairperson of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on – the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- if the proxy is not the chairperson of the meeting – the proxy need not vote on the poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed)

The transfer of non-chair proxy to chair in certain circumstances:

The new section 250BC provides that, if

- an appointment of a proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution at a meeting of the company's members; and
- the appointed proxy is not the chairperson of the meeting; and
- at the meeting, a poll is duly demanded on the resolution; and

either of the following applies:

- the proxy is not recorded as attending the meeting; or
- the proxy does not vote on the resolution,

the chairperson of the meeting is taken, before voting on the resolution close, to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on the resolution at the meeting.
