

MEDIA RELEASENB Global Corporate Income Trust (ASX:NBI) closes $340M raise

26 February 2020, Sydney: Global investment manager Neuberger Berman today announced it had received applications exceeding $340 million for the latest offer (comprising both an Entitlement Offer and a Shortfall Offer) (the “Offer”) of new Units in its NB Global Corporate Income Trust (ASX:NBI or “the Trust”) as at the close of the Offer on 21 February 2020.

Following settlement, NBI will be the largest global fixed income listed investment trust (LIT) on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) with a market capitalisation of approximately $1.25 billion. The Trust invests in the corporate bonds of large and liquid companies around the world and currently targets a distribution of 5.25% per annum (net of fees and expenses)¹ delivered as monthly income.

Matt Thompson, Head of Intermediary Distribution at Neuberger Berman, noted that support for the Offer – NBI’s second capital raise since its IPO in 2018 – underscores Australian investors’ desire to access the global corporate bond market.

“In the current low interest rate environment, investors are looking for higher yields and alternative sources of income and they clearly value NBI’s mandate of delivering stable income and diversification across geographies and sectors,” said Mr Thompson.

“We are pleased to witness the strong support from both existing and new investors. The significant growth in the number of new investors shows that Neuberger Berman’s fixed income capability has struck a strong chord with Australian investors since NBI’s listing in September 2018.” added Mr Thompson.

“We would like to express our gratitude to investors who participated in the Offer and for the support of our Joint Lead Managers and Co-Managers for the Offer,” said Mr Thompson.

The allotment and issue of New Units under the Entitlement Offer will occur on 2 March 2020, with normal trading expected to commence on 3 March 2020.

It is anticipated that normal trading of New Units issued under the Shortfall Offer is expected to commence on 10 March 2020.

The first distribution on New Units issued under the Offer is expected to be paid in mid-April 2020.

¹ The Target Distribution is only a target and may not be achieved. Actual distributions will be monitored against the Target Distribution. The Target Distribution will be formally reviewed at least annually (as at the end of each financial year) and any reduction in Target Distribution will be notified by way of ASX announcement as required. Investors should review the “Risk Factors” set out in Section 8 of the product disclosure statement lodged with ASIC on 21 January 2020 (PDS). Please refer to the PDS for full details of the terms of the Offer, including Section 10 for the fees and costs that apply.
