

NEW CONTRACT WINS – OVER $2.0M OF TOTAL CONTRACT VALUE

Swift Media Limited (“Swift Media”, “the Company”) (ASX:SW1) is pleased to announce the signing of three new contracts to provide fit for purpose entertainment systems at workforce accommodation villages with a combined total contract value in excess of $2.0m.

Mineral Resources Ltd – New Contract

Swift has been appointed by Mineral Resources Ltd for the provision of Pay TV Content and adhoc Support and Maintenance Services to five of its remote accommodation sites. Under a two year agreement, Swift will provide content to rooms and wet mess areas to service the five remote sites.

Roy Hill – Contract Extension

Swift is delighted to announce Roy Hill has extended Swift’s services for an additional twelve months commencing in April signalling the continuation of Swift’s long term relationship with Roy Hill, providing communications and entertainment services to the Roy Hill mine village in Western Australia.

Quarantine Camp – New Contract

Additionally Swift Media has been appointed to provide television services, Wifi internet, movies and 24x7 support to a quarantine camp. Phase 1 of the contract covers around 780 rooms with an upfront and ongoing revenue component.

CEO Pippa Leary said, “We are delighted to convert these three, important new contract wins from our growing pipeline of opportunities. Having streamlined Swift to focus on our core verticals, these appointments demonstrate our compelling value proposition and ability to leverage our market leading position to drive growth. We look forward to working closely with our partners to deliver outstanding results.”
