thedocyard renews enterprise licence with Grant Thornton Australia for deal management services

Grant Thornton Australia, a leading provider of independent assurance, tax and advisory services, has renewed its enterprise licence with thedocyard.

Under the 12-month enterprise licence contract, thedocyard will continue to deliver a complete deal management platform to assist Grant Thornton's deal flow across all of its Australian operations.

This renewal continues thedocyard's ongoing engagement with Grant Thornton, with no further material conditions to be satisfied.

"We are pleased to have been working with Grant Thornton since 2018 in the execution of all their deals," said Stuart Clout, Chief Executive Officer of thedocyard. "This renewal reflects thedocyard's ongoing contribution to improving data security, compliance, productivity and efficiency of Grant Thornton's deal management."

"Grant Thornton have always been forward-thinkers in the industry, and their adoption of deal technology demonstrates this," said Mr Clout. "Through thedocyard, Grant Thornton has reported positive feedback from their customers regarding better customer experience and ease of use. In a swiftly shifting market, Grant Thornton has shown its willingness to adapt to the changing nature of the industry and needs of its clients. We look forward to continuing our work with them."
