The Financial Year (FY) 2020 saw the Group report an after tax loss of $19.4M. This deterioration from the Half Year FY20, where the Group reported after tax profits of $6.9M, was attributable to reduced passenger revenue (less $65 M) following the COVID-19 pandemic, mark to market of fuel hedges not utilised because of fewer flights and impairments to non-financial assets.

The Group's underlying Profit Before Tax was $0.25M after excluding impairments of $62.1M, grant from the Regional Airline Funding Assistance programme of $37.8M and ineffective fuel hedge mark-to-market adjustments of $3.4M.

Capacity on Rex's Regular Passenger Transport (RPT) network was reduced by over 80% in April 20 following the onslaught of the pandemic. Both the Federal and State governments immediately stepped in and underwrote a minimum essential service to every regional port on Rex's network and continues to do so at the date of this report.
