Release Number 11/20

Appointment of Non-executive Director

BHP Chair, Ken MacKenzie, today announced the appointment of Christine O'Reilly to the BHP Board as an independent Non-executive Director, effective 12 October 2020.

Ms O'Reilly has broad strategic, financial and operational experience from her extensive executive and non-executive roles across diverse industries. Ms O'Reilly is currently a Non-executive Director of Stockland Limited, Medibank Private Limited, Transurban Group and CSL Limited. She will retire from the Boards of Transurban Group and CSL Limited at the conclusion of each of their 2020 Annual General Meetings. She was previously a Non-executive Director of Energy Australia Holdings Limited.

Ms O'Reilly's executive career included 30 years' experience in both financial and operational entities, including as the Chief Executive Officer of the GasNet Australia Group and as Co-Head of Unlisted Infrastructure Investments at Colonial First State Global Asset Management.

Mr MacKenzie said Ms O'Reilly's appointment reflected the Board's commitment to a continuous, structured and rigorous approach to Board succession and planning and this appointment is based on the balance of attributes, skills, experience, diversity and tenure necessary for the Board to govern BHP effectively.

"We are delighted that Christine will be joining our Board. Christine's extensive executive and non-executive experience in financial and operational roles, and her wide range of skills will help to strengthen the Board's experience and expertise. She will bring deep financial and public policy expertise, as well as valuable insight and experience in large scale capital projects and transformational strategy."

Ms O'Reilly will also become a member of the Risk and Audit Committee and the Remuneration Committee, effective 12 October 2020.

After the BHP Annual General Meetings, the BHP Board will comprise 12 Directors – 11 Non-executive Directors and one Executive Director.
