Sezzle Drives Toward Profitability and Free Cash Flow

Sezzle Inc. (ASX:SZL) (Sezzle or Company) // Sezzle today announces a workforce reduction to continue to position the business for long-term growth while establishing a path toward profitability and free cash flow. Once this action is fully implemented, the Company expects to achieve approximately US$10.0 million of annual run-rate cost savings (i.e., salaries and benefits). The workforce reduction will occur across nearly all business operations to streamline reporting structures and create clearer lines of accountability.

“Sezzle has experienced significant growth in its history and is now at an important juncture, as we look to take decisive steps toward profitability and free cash flow,” stated Charlie Youakim, CEO and Executive Chair. “Sezzle’s growth prospects remain unchanged, and these actions position the Company to maximize its long term success.”

The workforce reduction will result in the reduction of approximately 20% of positions in North America and is expected to result in approximately US$0.5 million in one-time cash charges that will be recorded in fiscal year 2022.

Mr. Youakim added, “These decisions are not easily made as we greatly value our team members. We thank our team for their efforts during this process.”

This announcement was approved by the Company’s CEO and Executive Chair, Charlie Youakim, on behalf of the Sezzle Inc. Board.

Sezzle's CDIs are issued in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Regulation S of the US Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) for offers of securities which are made outside the US. Accordingly, the CDIs have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or the laws of any state or other jurisdiction in the US. As a result of relying on the Regulation S exemption, the CDIs are 'restricted securities' under Rule 144 of the Securities Act. This means that you are unable to sell the CDIs into the US or to a US person who is not a QIB for the foreseeable future, unless the re-sale of the CDIs is registered under the Securities Act or another exemption is available. To enforce the above transfer restrictions, all CDIs issued bear a FOR Financial Product designation on the ASX. This designation restricts any CDIs from being sold on ASX to US persons excluding QIBs. However, you are still able to freely transfer your CDIs on ASX to any person other than a US person who is not a QIB. In addition, hedging transactions with regard to the CDIs may only be conducted in accordance with the Securities Act.
