EXPLANATORY NOTES

Item 1: ASX’s Financial Report and Shareholder Questions

The Financial Report, Directors’ Report and Auditor’s Report for ASX for the year ended 30 June 2008 will be laid before the meeting. There is no requirement for shareholders to approve these reports. However, the Chair of the meeting will allow a reasonable opportunity for shareholders to ask questions about or make comments on the management of ASX. Shareholders will also be given a reasonable opportunity to ask the auditor questions about the conduct of the audit and the content of the Auditor’s Report.

In addition to asking questions at the meeting, written questions to the Chairman about the management of ASX, or to ASX’s auditor about the content of the Auditor’s Report and the conduct of the audit, may be submitted no later than Tuesday, 16 September 2008 to:

Company Secretary
ASX Limited
Exchange Centre
20 Bridge Street
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

Facsimile: +61 (2) 9227 0480
Email: company.secretariat@asx.com.au

Copies of written questions and answers will be available at the meeting and posted on ASX’s website.

Item 2: SEGC Financial Report

Securities Exchanges Guarantee Corporation Limited (‘SEGC’) is the body responsible for administration of the National Guarantee Fund (the ‘Fund’). The operation of SEGC and the Fund is governed by the Corporations Act 2001 and SEGC’s constitution. The assets of the Fund are the property of SEGC but are held on trust for purposes set out in the Corporations Act 2001.

The Corporations Act 2001 requires SEGC to cause a copy of the audited financial statements of the Fund to be laid before the Annual General Meeting of ASX.

Item 3: Remuneration Report

The Remuneration Report sets out ASX’s remuneration arrangements for directors, including the Managing Director & CEO, and ASX staff.

The Chair of the meeting will allow a reasonable opportunity for shareholders to ask questions about or make comments on the Remuneration Report at the meeting. In addition, shareholders will be asked to vote on the Remuneration Report. However, this vote is of an advisory nature only and does not bind the Company or its directors.

Item 4: Election of Directors

The ASX Board (‘Board’) considers that individually and collectively the directors need to bring a level of skill, knowledge and experience that enables the Board to discharge its responsibilities effectively. All current serving directors (including those seeking re-election) have an understanding of financial markets. The extensive financial markets experience among the Board members spans involvement in a diverse range of trading, asset management, financing, corporate advisory, public policy and regulatory activities. The Board’s policy on board composition is to ensure that at all times, and through succession planning, there will be an appropriate mix of skills and experience so as to provide, on an ongoing basis, the necessary breadth and depth of knowledge which is required to meet the Company’s responsibilities and objectives. As part of this plan the Board increased its size in June 2007 to facilitate its succession planning, appointing as directors Mr David Gonski, in anticipation that he would succeed Mr Maurice Newman in the role as Chairman, and Mr Shane Finemore, in view of Mr Michael Shepherd’s retirement in October 2007. The Board’s succession planning included a reduction in the size of the Board as Mr Shepherd and Mr Newman retired. Mr Newman will retire after the 2008 AGM and Mr Gonski will succeed Mr Newman to the office of Chairman.
Under Listing Rule 14.4, a director must not hold office without re-election past the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment or three years, whichever is longer. A director who retires in accordance with these requirements is eligible for re-election. Accordingly, Mr Aboud and Mr Rowe are due to retire at the end of the meeting and offer themselves for re-election to the Board.

There are three candidates for election but only two board positions are being filled by electing an eligible person at this AGM. Accordingly, if more than two candidates receive more votes 'for' than 'against' only the two candidates who receive the greatest number of votes 'for' will be elected to the Board.

The manner in which candidates are listed in this Notice of Meeting and Proxy Form has been determined by the auditor conducting a ballot. Voting on the election of directors (items 4(a), (b) and (c) of the Notice of Meeting) may be determined by a poll at the meeting rather than a show of hands. Shareholders and proxy holders attending the meeting will be provided with poll voting cards. Shareholders not attending the meeting may use the enclosed Proxy Form.

Items 4(a), 4(b) and 4(c): Election of Directors

Item 4(a) relates to an external candidate, Mr Stephen Mayne, who seeks election as Director.

STEPHEN MAYNE, BCom (Melb), age 39

Mr Stephen Mayne has provided the following biographical details and the 'single issue platform' on which he is standing. The biographical details have not been independently verified by ASX. By including the statement on Mr Stephen Mayne’s platform, ASX does not in any way endorse the statement nor its accuracy or reliability.

Stephen Mayne is a Walkley Award winning business journalist and Australia’s leading shareholder activist. He founded Australia’s best known independent ezine www.crikey.com.au and now publishes the corporate governance ezine www.maynereport.com.

Mr Stephen Mayne is standing on the single issue platform that ASX rescinds waivers granted to various Babcock & Brown and Macquarie Group listed vehicles that allow them to not fully disclose their management agreements for the likes of Macquarie Airports and Babcock & Brown Power. Once ASX forces this disclosure, and thereby takes the corporate governance and disclosure high road again, Mr Stephen Mayne will immediately resign. He has provided ASX with an undated letter of resignation conditional on the completion of such a disclosure process.'

Board Recommendation

The directors unanimously believe that it is not in the best interests of ASX shareholders that Mr Stephen Mayne be elected and recommend that shareholders vote against his election.

The ASX Board notes that Mr Stephen Mayne is standing on a single issue platform stating that he will resign as soon as his issue is dealt with.

The Board notes the danger of electing any candidate in such circumstances. Candidates should be prepared to serve out their term, and to serve all the shareholders for the full term and in relation to all the issues that may arise during their term.

The Board has considered the platform on which Mr Stephen Mayne seeks election. ASX notes that no waivers have been granted which have the effect of changing any disclosure obligations in relation to management agreements identified in Mr Stephen Mayne’s platform. In any event, the Board does not consider that the role of a director of ASX, or a candidate’s platform for election, should be to seek to influence decisions made in exercising a supervisory function.
Items 4(b) and 4(c): Re-election of Directors

RUSSELL A ABOUD, MBBS (Syd)

Mr Aboud was appointed a director of ASX in July 2005. He is a director of Australian Clearing House Pty Limited, SFE Clearing Corporation Pty Limited, ASX Clearing Corporation Limited, Austraclear Limited, and ASX Settlement and Transfer Corporation Pty Limited.

Mr Aboud is Chairman of Manikay Partners LLC, the non-executive Chairman of Ord Minnett Limited and a consultant to JP Morgan Securities Australia Limited. He has extensive knowledge and experience in the international financial services and securities industries gained over 20 years. Past roles have included Global Head of European Equities and Head of Australasian Equities for the UBS group.

TREVOR C ROWE AM, FCIS, FAICD, ACPA

Mr Rowe was appointed a director of ASX in 2002. He is a member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

Mr Rowe is executive Chairman of Rothschild Australia Limited and Chairman of Queensland Investment Corporation Limited, Getalk Limited, Queensland BioCapital Fund, United Group Limited, Enhance Management Limited, BrisConnections Management Company Limited, Bond Foundation Limited and RSPCA Building Fund (Queensland). He is Chairman and Chancellor of Bond University, and a member of the Foreign Affairs Council and the Board of Guardians of the Future Fund of Australia, and founding member of the Friends of the Royal Flying Doctor Service (South Eastern Section).

Board Recommendation

The non-candidate directors unanimously support the re-election of Mr Russell Aboud and Mr Trevor Rowe.

Item 5: Appointment of Auditor

KPMG was ASX’s auditor prior to demutualisation in 1998. Since that time KPMG has conducted the audit in a most effective and competent manner. ASX’s Audit and Risk Committee annually considers whether an audit tender process is required for the appointment of external auditor. ASX considered that an audit tender process was required following the merger of ASX and SFE in July 2006. Following an intensive review process of major accounting firms with the capabilities of undertaking ASX’s audit, the Board recommends the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers as auditor.

Subject to shareholder approval at the AGM, the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers will be effective for the 2008/2009 financial year. If PricewaterhouseCoopers is appointed as auditor, arrangements are in place between ASX, KPMG and PricewaterhouseCoopers to enable a smooth transition between audit firms.

KPMG has tendered its resignation as auditor to ASX and it has advised ASX that it has applied to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (‘ASIC’) for consent to resign effective 24 September 2008. It is anticipated that KPMG’s resignation will take effect from the later of that date and the day on which ASIC gives its consent. ASX’s expectation is that ASIC’s consent will be forthcoming prior to the date of the AGM.

In accordance with subsection 328B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001, notice in writing nominating PricewaterhouseCoopers as auditor has been given to ASX by a shareholder. A copy of this notice is shown in Attachment A on page 6 of the Explanatory Notes.

Representatives of KPMG and PricewaterhouseCoopers will be available at the AGM to respond to any shareholder questions.

Board Recommendation

The Board recommends the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers as auditor for the 2008/2009 financial year.
